WILSON OPPOSED TO CURTAILMENT

Plan Proposed in Congress on Anti-Trust Bill

FIGHT WILL CONTINUE

President Expresses Unqualified Disapproval of Plan to Combine All Bills Into One Temporary Measure.

Washington, April 13.—Unqualified disapproval was expressed by President Wilson today of the proposal in Congress to curtail the anti-trust legislative programme for this season. Later, members of the House judiciary sub-committee, who had conferred with the President on the subject, declared that an effort would be made to report quickly a single measure embodying the substance of all the separate tentative trust bills, and that legislation also would be pressed to meet the demands of labor for restriction of the injunction powers of the courts.

That opposition to carrying out the full trust legislative programme is growing among Senate and House Democrats continued in evidence during the day, notwithstanding determination to revive the effort to perfect measures affecting interlocking directorates, holding companies, price discriminations and other evils.

Senator Newlands, chairman of the Senate inter-State commerce committee, said his committee expected to report a general trust bill soon, though the members had not agreed upon details. Before the committee determines finally upon its course, however, it will pass upon the amendment already prepared, to preclude action at this session upon anything but a bill to create an inter-State trade commission with broad powers and express direction to investigate the whole problem of big business, and to recommend to the next Congress what legislation supplemental to the Sherman law should be enacted.

Perfect Tentative Measure.

Unless this plan is agreed to, the committee will proceed to perfect the tentative measure it has worked out in four sections. The first section would create a commission to regulate corporations; the second would prohibit forms of interlocking directorates in competing concerns; a third would regulate holding companies; a fourth would deal with stock watering and the issuance of railroad securities, and a fifth would attempt to eradicate price discrimination which affect competition.

Besides the members of the House judiciary sub committee, President Wilson today conferred with Representative Webb, of North Carolina. After the conferences, the sub-committee determined upon the following programme:

Speeding up of committee consideration of the anti-trust legislation with a view to reporting as quickly as possible a single bill comprising the principles of the Clayton bills on trade relations, interlocking directorates holding companies; inclusion of the anti-injunction plan in this bill or in a separate measure to regulate issue of injunctions and restraining orders in strikes and other labor controversies, to provide due notice to all parties concerned and jury trial rights in contempt proceedings for violations of injunction decrees.

Chairman Clayton, of the judiciary committee, said tonight he hoped to have the anti-trust bills out of his committee and reported to the House within a fortnight.

A section of the Clayton bill, which will be offered before the committee as a basis for the anti-injunction measure, would stop any restraining order or injunction in any case "involving or growing out of a dispute concerning terms or conditions of employment, unless necessary to prevent irreparable injury to property or to property right of the party making the application, and these right would be sworn to by the applicant "with particularity."

The inter-State trade commission bill was re introduced in the House today by Representative Covington, of Maryland, for the Inter-State Commerce Commission with some minor changes. The principal change in the bill, as already made public, is an amendment to provide that in any equity suit brought under the attorney general's direction under the anti-trust law, the court may, on the consideration of the testimony, refer the suit to the trade commission to ascertain and report an appropriation form of decree, and that upon such report exceptions may be filed. The court may adopt or reject the trade commission report, in whole or in part.

OVATION TO UNDERWOOD.

Return of Democratic Leader to the House Brings Much Applause.

Washington, April 13.—Democratic Leader Underwood's entry into the House today was the signal for one of the most enthusiastic ovations of the session. There was loud applause from members of all parties and business of the House was suspended while members congratulated him upon his successful Senatorial campaign in Alabama.

Trenton, N. J., April 13.—Governor Fielder today after a public hearing, vetoed the bill which would have permitted foreign medical societies to experiment in animal diseases in this State. The bill was backed by the Rockefeller Research Institute.

Pensacola, Fla., April 13.—F. C. Brent, capitalist of this city, died here today. His fortune was estimated at more than two million dollars. Mr. Brent established the First National Bank in this city.

"DAGO FRANK" CONFESSED TO PRISON WARDEN CLANCY

"Gyp, the Blood," Horowitz, "Lefty Louie" Rosenberg and Harry Vallon, an Informer, Fired the Shots That Killed Herman Rosenthal—Seidensher Did Not Fire on Gambler, Although Present at Shooting.

COMPLETELY EXONERATES BECKER OF ANY CONNECTION WITH CASE

Man Who Confessed Was Implicated in Plot to Kill Rosenthal, But Was Not Among Those Who Fired the Fatal Shots. Mother and Sister Pleaded With Him for the Truth Before He Went to the Death Chair.

Albany, N. Y., April 13.—Shortly before "Dago Frank" Cirofici went to the death chair in Sing Sing prison early today he told Warden Clancy that "Gyp the Blood" Horowitz, "Lefty Louie" Rosenberg and Harry Vallon, an informer, fired the shots which killed Herman Rosenthal, for which crime the four gunmen paid their lives.

"So far as I know, Becker had nothing to do with this case," the gunman also declared. "It was a gambler's fight." Cirofici averred he was five miles away at the time the crime was committed and that "Whitey Lewis" Seidenshner, although present at the scene of the shooting, did not fire any of the shots. Cirofici made no attempt, however, to deny that he was included in the original plot to slay Rosenthal, even admitting that two nights before the gambler was slain he went with other gangsters to look for their intended victim. They were frightened away from Rosenthal on that occasion by men they thought were detectives. The condemned man also admitted that early on the night of the actual killing he was in the grey "murder car" with the gunmen but he insisted that he left them before they shot the gambler. He did not explain precisely why the left the other gunmen just prior to the shooting, but two reasons are advanced. One is that he became frightened, and the other that he deserted in order to bail out his sweetheart, Jean Gordon, who had been arrested.

Mother Begged for Truth.

The statement which was made verbally in the principal keeper's office about 4 A. M. today ,was the result of the insistent plea on the part of Cirofici's mother and his sister for the truth. They had been here and made an unsuccessful appeal to the Governor to save the prisoner's life. Returning to the prison near dawn they were met by the warden and taken to the office where they met Cirofici.

Mr. Clancy came to Albany today and told his story to Supt. John B. Riley, of the State prison department, and Governor Glynn. The warden first issued a formal statement rehearsing a part of what Cirofici told him, and later added details which included Cirofici's admission that he was in the "murder car" two nights before the slaying.

The formal statement of the warden follows:

"About 8 o'clock Sunday night, Rosenberg asked me to save Frank, saying he had nothing to do with the shooting, he was not there. I went over and asked Frank why he did not tell the truth. He replied that he knew what was going on, but was not there when the shooting took place. I advised him to tell the whole truth. He said if he did they would kill his brother. I asked whom he meant by 'they,' and he replied that there were 50 men in New York he could name. He said, 'I don't care about myself, it's my family I care for.'

"I caused Frank Cirofici to be brought from the condemned cell house to the principal keeper's office about 4 o'clock Monday morning. He made the following, among other statements ,in the presence of myself, Principal Keeper McInery, the chaplain, his mother and his sister. They urged him to tell the whole truth. He hesitated and said:

"'I don't want to make any statement for the public. I do not fear for myself, but I do fear for you.'

"His sister replied: 'Don't have any fear for us, we will take care of ourselves. God will protect us.'

"His mother and sister continued to urge him to tell the truth. He said: 'I did not do the shooting. The men who fired the shots were Gpy, Louie and Vallon.'

Exonerates Becker.

"He said: 'I was five miles away at the time. So far as I know Becker had nothing to do with this case. It was a gamblers' fight.'

"He mentioned several raids on gambling houses and said that the story of Shapiro told to Commissioner Dougherty was true. He said: 'I told some lies on the stand to prove an alibi for the rest of the boys. The testimony about the conversation with Rose in the car on the way down was not true. I was in Bridgey Webber's when the arrangements were made. I did not know just what the arrangements were. I knew something was coming off. I did not see Louie pack the trunk as I testified on the stand. There ere guns there but not the ones they used.' When asked how he gained this information, he said: 'I heard the boys talking about it since I was here.'

"The conversation then related to otner matters not directly connected with the Rosenthal murder. He admitted his knowledge of the participations in the preparations for the murder but denied his presence when the actual murder was committed."

According to Mr. Clancy, practically everything that Cirofici said after he started to make his final statement was voluntary. His defense of Becker came absolutely without suggestion from any one, the warden maintained. Cirofici's statement was not wholly unexpected. After making his statement to Mr. Clancy, Cirofici almost collapsed, and this was the cause of the sudden switch in the warden's plans which sent "Dago Frank" to the chair first instead of "Gyp the Blood."

At no time, according to the warden, did any of the gunmen except Cirofici insist that they were innocent of the crime of killing Rosenthal. "Whitey Lewis" always declared that he did not fire a shot and it is the warden's opinion that his dying words were, "I didn't shoot at Rosenthal."

Mr. Clancy said that "Dago Frank" and "Whitey Lewis" always believed that they were not as guilty at slaying Rosenthal as were the men who fired the shots.

Incidentally, while Mr. Clancy was sitting in Mr. Riley's office tonight, the superintendent expressed the hope that no other man would pay the penalty of death in the electric chair in this State.

"I hope," he said, "to see the next Legislature pass a law permitting juries to fix life penalty, and that this reform will succeed in doing away with capital punishment."

Warden Clancy denied reports that he was on the verge of a nervous breakdown owing to his experience with the gunmen.

Governor Glynn was greatly interested in the report of the warden, but he declined to make any comment on the case.

Execution of Gunmen.

Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, N. Y., April 13.—The four gunmen convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, died in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison at the break of dawn this Easter Monday morning. Of the four who died, Frank Seidenshner ("Whitey Lewis"), made the only public statement. Even he did not flatly assert his innocence.

"Gentlemen," he mumbled as they strapped him in the chair, "I did not shoot at Rosenthal. Them who said I did were perjurers. For the sake of justice, gentlemen, I say I did not. The witness Stannish ——"

"Whitey" did not finish the sentence. The strange harness had been adjusted and the current threw his body forward in the chair. He had meant to say that Stannish, a waiter and a witness at the murder trial had lied, but death intervened.

Seidenshner was the second man to die. "Dago Frank" (Frank Cirofici), came first. "Gyp the Blood" (Harry Horowitz), was third, and "Lefty Louie" (Louis Rosenberg), last.

In forty minutes flat all four were despatched. This time would have been shortened had it not been for the overcrowding of newspaper reporters. Their numbers necessitated a shifting of witnesses for each execution.

There was no untoward incident through the procedure. All walked quietly to the chair, and only their quaking knees and the sickly green paller of their faces attested that the realization of death was upon them.

William E. Cashin, Roman Catholic chaplain of the prison, accompanied "Dago Frank" to the chair. With "Whitey Lewis" and "Gyp the Blood" was Rabbi Joseph Goldstein, of New York. Rabbi Mayer Kopfstein, long the spiritual adviser of the Rosenberg family, stood by "Lefty Louie."

Dawn was breaking when the witnesses were admitted to the bare court yard of the death house. From a printed list a clerk read off the names of those who were to see the first man die. A moment more and the door of the death chamber had closed behind them. Warden Clancy had announced that "Gyp the Blood" would die first, followed by "Lefty Louie," "Dago Frank" and "Whitey Lewis." But as it transpired the man who first came through the little iron door at the right was "Dago Frank." He had shown signs of collapsing and it was deemed expedient to shield him from the ordeal of waiting.

Everything Made Ready.

State Electrician Davis carefully tested the electric current.

"Two of these men have told me that they will make a statement," announced Warden Clancy, "but under no circumstances must any one ask them any questions."

The head and leg sponges were then wet and Head Keeper McInerney, acting on a signal from the warden went to the death cell. There he found Cirofici in prayer with Father Cashin. The condemned man clutched a crucifix in each hand as he was led into the presence of death. He had to be

ECONOMIC SIDE OF TOLLS QUESTION

Closely Studied by Committee in All Day Session

WITNESSES ARE HEARD

President Wilson Agreed With Bryan That Amendment Reaffirming Sovereignty Over Canal Was Not Necessary.

Washington, April 13.—The economic side of the Panama canal tolls controversy occupied the Senate interoceanic canals committee today to the virtual exclusion of the treaty obligations involved, and neither aspect was in evidence elsewhere about Congress. At the White House, however, President Wilson reaffirmed his belief that repeal of the exemption from tolls granted to American coastwise ships would not constitute an interpretation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, but merely would indicate the unwillingness of this country to bring up the question of discrimination.

The President agreed with the views recently expressed by Secretary Bryan that no amendment was necessary to the pending repeal bill, reaffirming the sovereignty of the United States over the canal.

Before the canals committee, E. T. Chamberlain, Federal commissioner of navigation, and Prof. S. S. Huebner, of the University of Pennsylvania, discussed the economic question of tolls exemption in a general way. Prof. Huebner for two years was empolyed as an expert by the House Merchant Marine committee, and data which he compiled as the coastwise shipping at that time, was laid before the committee today for its information.

Commissioner Chamberlain declared his belief that the United States had no right to exempt any of its shipping from payment of tolls unless it specifically provided that the government should meet the expense of passing the exempted ships through the canal, and that the exemption should not add in any way to the burden imposed upon foreign shipping.

Discussed Economic Side.

Professor Huebner expressed no opinion on the repeal issue, confining himself to the economic discussion growing out of the statement that the House Committee investigation had shown over 90 per cent. of the coastwise ships on the Atlantic Coast and fifty per cent. of those on the Pacific coast were controlled by railroads or conferences of steamship companies, so far as rate-making is concerned.

The only other witness heard was Walter Wood, representing the Philadelphia chamber of commerce, who presented resolutions adopted by that body.

Commissioner Chamberlain asserted his belief in subsidy for American

ONE MAN KILLED IN FIRE

And Several Others Injured When Walls of Building Fell After Being Swept by Flames.

Culpepper, Va., April 13.—One man was killed, several were injured and damage of about $50,000 was done by a fire that destroyed four of Culpepper's largest commercial buildings today. Carter Parr, 19 years old, nephew of L. B. Nelson, a local merchant, was killed by falling walls, and Robert Rosson, 20 years old, was seriously hurt. Five other volunteer firemen were injured.

The fire was caused by an explosion under the coffee urn in Bell's bakery, resulting in the destruction of that structure and the row of buildings occupied by a bowling alley and the wholesale dry goods warehouse of A. L. Goodloe & Company, the Eclipse Theatre and the Culpepper Harness Company.

Later reports of the condition of Robert Rosson stated it was feared he had been fatally hurt.

OUTLINES

New York markets: Money on call steady 1 3-4 per cent; ruling rate 1 3-4; closing 1 3-4 to 1 7-8. Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 13.35; middling gulf 13.60.

Just a short while before being led to the electric chair for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, "Dago Frank" confessed to Prison Warden Clancy. He told who fired the shots that killed the gambler and while he was not present did not deny being implicated in the plot. Lieut. Becker was completely exonerated in the statement.

President Wilson is opposed to the curtailment of the anti-trust programme in Congress. The plan was to combine all pending bills and rush one measure through both wings of Congress, forming an inter-State trade commission to thoroughly investigate inter-State trade and to recommend to Congress at a later session laws to govern business.

The Senate inter-oceanic canals committee spent all of yesterday's session closely studying the economic side rather than the treaty pledge violations of the Panama Canal tolls controversy.

That the Federal bank organizers would not be delayed by action of the National banks throughout the country was witnessed by the receipt at the Treasury Department of several checks from different sections from banks for stock in the new system.

MEXICAN GENERAL WILL NOT SALUTE AMERICAN COLORS

Government of Mexico Orders Commander Not to Accede to Demand Made By Admiral Mayo and Backed Up By President Wilson—Additional American Battleships to Tampico From Other Points.

Vera Cruz, April 13.—Gen. Gustavo Maas, the Federal commander at Vera Cruz, speaking today with reference to the arrest of an American detachment from the Dolphin at Tampico and the demand by the American admiral for satisfaction for the insult to the American flag, said that the Mexican government had ordered Gen. Morelos Zaragoza not to accede to Admiral Mayo's demand—which was that the American colors should be saluted within 24 hours, considering that such a step would be highly derogatory to national dignity, and was also uncalled for, as absolutely no insult had been offered to the American flag.

For the unfortunate mistake made in arresting the Americans, General Maas added, Gen. Morelos Zaragoza had, by his apology, made ample compensation.

Private advices received here today from Tampico say the rebel forces have withdrawn a considerable distance from the outskirts of the town, it is presumed to reorganize.

The United States battleship Minnesota left here for Tampico today well loaded with supplies. The Cuban freight steamer Camaguey will leave tonight for the same port. It has been commissioned to bring refugees to Vera Cruz.

May Bring Serious Action.

Washington, April 13.—Upon whether the commander of the Huerta forces at Tampico salutes the American flag in apology for the arrest of American marines last Thursday, depends immediate developments in the Mexican situation.

President Wilson declared unofficially that he expected the Federal commander at Tampico to fire a salute to the Stars and Stripes as demanded by Rear Admiral Mayo, and he spoke with a confidence that implied insistence. The Navy Department still was unadvised tonight as to whether or not the salute had been fired. It is understood that instructions have been sent to Charge O'Shaughnessy to represent to the Huerta government the feeling of the administration here over the affront, but there has been no announcement on the subject.

The presence in Washington of John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico for the last eight months, gave the Washington government an adviser with special knowledge of the military situation at Tampico. Mr. Lind reached here from Vera Cruz aboard the Presidential yacht Mayflower early today, and spent several hours with Secretary Bryan. Tomorrow he will see President Wilson, accompanied by Secretary Bryan for an hour just before the cabinet meeting. Authoritatively it is said that Mr. Lind's reports on the general situation were so comprehensive and complete that he really did not have to come to Washington to supplement them.

Lind Uncommunicative.

Mr. Lind himself, was uncommunicative, saying merely he had sought a vacation and was at the orders of the government.

Direct cable connection between Tampico and Vera Cruz has been broken and news of what is going on at Tampico can only reach Washington by wireless and owing to the prevalance of storms of hurricane proportion this communication has been exceedingly difficult and slow. The Huerta government, it is understood, has been obliged to communicate with Tampico by messages sent on steamboats and it is suggested by naval officers that if it becomes necessary for Gen. Huerta to send instructions to the Federal commander at Tampico in a limited time, he might have to resort to the use of the radio outfits of the American battleships even in dealing with a subject so delicate as the demand for a salute.

Administration officials are hoping that the salute will be fired, and the incident closed. Their optimism is such that Secretary Bryan, who has been in ill health, is planning to go tomorrow to Miami, Fla., for a rest, while President Wilson will leave here again on Thursday night for White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Mr. Lind is understood to have told Secretary Bryan there would be a lull in the diplomatic side of the Mexican situation while the contending forces in the north fought for supremacy. The former Minnesota Governor took the opportunity to come to the United States while there seemed to him to be little prospect of the Huerta government yielding. He is known to believe that only the conquering armies of the Constitutionalists can force Gen. Huerta to retire at present.

Mr. Lind has found life in the tropics somewhat fatiguing, but he declared today his health had not suffered. His tall, angular figure, his tanned face and sharp features and his broad brimmed felt hat attracted attention at the hotel where he was stopping. Many friends whom he knew in Congress years ago, called to greet him.

Mr. Lind had just completed his conference with Secretary Bryan when the newspaper correspondents were ushered in.

Mr. Bryan presented Mr. Lind and with a smile announced: "You may quote him to any extent."

Mr. Lind laughed and justified his title of "the man of silence."

Secretary Bryan said merely that a conference had been arranged with President Wilson for tomorrow and that Mr. Lind's plans thereafter had not yet been decided upon. Mr. Bryan had no information to give out about the situation at Tampico.

At the Navy Department there was singular confidence that the salute would be fired at Tampico. This was based, it was said, upon a knowledge of the tremendous offensive power of the American fleet now in the harbor or just outside of Tampico. The fleet with its big guns facing the weak shore defenses of the port, is believed here to render out of the question any resistance by the Mexican Federal commander already stretching his resources to repel the Constitutionalist forces hemming in the town.

Transport Held Over.

New Orleans, April 13.—Her coaling completed and with a full crew on board, the United States transport Hancock was standing by her late tonight, her original orders to proceed to Tampico having been cancelled today by instructions to await further dispatches from Washington.

What caused the sudden change in plans is not known here, although it is believed that the conference today between President Wilson and John Lind, his personal representative in Mexico have led to some alteration of the administration's Mexican programme. It is also considered possible that the Hancock will remain here until the Huerta government has made definite answer to Admiral Mayo's demand that Tampico Federals salute the flag.

The 950 marines brought here by the Hancock two months ago tonight were still quatered at the local naval station, and were making no preparations to embark on the transport.

Early tonight the United States hospital ship Solace, which was expected to accompany the Hancock to Mexican waters, sailed for Tampico.

IN EXECUTIVE SESSION.

Senate Discussed Motion to Reconsider Nomination of Nally.

Washington, April 13.—The Senate, in executive session today discussed for several hours a motion to reconsider the vote by which the nomination of James C. Nally, of Pennsylvania, to be consul at Nuremburg, Bavaria, was rejected last week. The motion to reconsider received 24 votes to 21 against, which was not a quorum whereupon the Senate adjourned. The effort will be renewed.

Baltimore, April 13.—The Rt. Rev. Charles Clifton Penick, formerly missionary bishop to Africa, of the Protestant Episcopal church, died here today, aged 70 years. Latterly Bishop Penick had been engaged in work among the negroes of the South. His home was in South Boston, Va. He was a Confederate veteran.

ANNUAL EASTER EGG HUNT

President Wilson Plays Host to Thousands of Children of the Capital City.

Washington, April 13.—President Wilson returned here early today from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and went to the White House for breakfast. With him were Secretary McAdoo, Miss Eleanor Wilson and Francis B. Sayre, the President's son-in-law. Mrs. Sayre and Miss Margaret Wilson remained at the Springs with Mrs. Wilson, where they will stay for another week. The President probably will again join them on Friday.

The President was host today to the children of the capital at their annual frolic and egg rolling in the White House grounds. The President and members of the cabinet planned either to view the children at play from the south portico of the White House or else to go into the throng and see the fun at close range.

Ideal weather favored the little guests and thousands of them gather-

BANKS RESPOND PROMPTLY

Organization of New Federal Reserve System Will Not be Delayed. Money Returned.

Washington, April 13.—That the work of the organization committee in setting up the new Federal reserve banking system will not be delayed by the banks, was indicated today by an announcement that already many banks had forwarded checks or cash in payment of the first part of their subscription to the stock of reserve banks in their districts.

The subscriptions are premature, however, and the money offered will be returned, pending formal notification that the committee is ready to take this step in the organization of the system. Under the law subscriptions to reserve bank stock are to be made on the call of the committee.

"It is not the purpose of the committee," said a treasury statement issued tonight, "to call for the payment of subscriptions until the details of the organization are more nearly completed and banks are ready to be placed in operation."

ALLISON GRANT IS TO BE DEVELOPED

Capitalists Purchase 43,000 Acres in Brunswick

PAGES AND ASSOCIATES

Big Tract Will be Developed Along Same Lines That Have Marked Agricultural Improvements in Sand Hill Section.

Planning a development similar to that which in the past five years has transformed the pine and sand barrens of Moore county and the surrounding sections into one of the most productive and advanced agricultural centers in the South, the Brunswick Land & Lumber Company, composed of eight capitalists, half of whom are Northern men and half Southern, has purchased the original title to what is known as the Allison Grant, a tract of 43,000 or more acres of land lying in Smithville and Town Creek townships, and is already at work upon preliminary arrangements looking toward opening up the land and developing it into a prosperous and profitable agricultural community.

Messrs. Frank C. and Ralph W. Page, of Aberdeen, N. C., sons of Mr. Walter H. Page, American ambassador to Great Britain, are stockholders in and managers of the Brunswick Land & Lumber Company, and practically all of the stockholders are men who have large interests in the advanced farming operations that are now being conducted around Pinehurst and other sections of Moore county. Mr. Frank C. Page will have charge of the details at this end of the line, and will make his headquarters at Wilmington and Southport.

The Allison property extends from a short distance this side of Southport nearly to Bolivia, and a large part of it borders on the Wilmington, Brunswick & Southern railroad. The original grant called for 43,000 acres, but under the lines established by the grant, and run out in a recent survey, the property contains many more acres than this, it is said.

Part of Lands Settled Upon.

The tract purchased is a large one, and naturally it embraces lands which have been settled upon, and are being farmed now, while still others claim title by right of purchase or otherwise, to undeveloped tracts included in the boundaries of the original Allison grant. The adjustment of titles to those parts of the tract to which there are other claimants, therefore, will be the first step taken by the new owners, and the official announcement of their policy in this respect will be found elsewhere in today's issue.

Mr. Frank C. Page, the manager, states that the company will endeavor to straighten out all title controversies as equitably, fairly and justly as possible, and that with this end in view it is prepared to give to every man who has a home and a cleared farm within the lines of the original grant a quit claim deed to the property he occupies. Mr. Page states that the company recognizes that no development can be accomplished in the near future if all claims to title have to be threshed out in the courts, and that, aside from this fact, it has no desire to impose on those who, in good faith and for some value or other, have long possessed their holdings in the tract.

Original Title Very Old.

The original title to the property dates back, it is said, to 1795, when David Allison obtained it through a grant from the State of North Carolina. He perfected his title, it is said, and on his death the property went to his heirs in Philadelphia, who have held it ever since. The Brunswick Land & Lumber Company purchased the property from the heirs in Philadelphia, and, while the consideration was not made public, it is said to have been a very large sum.

Following the satisfactory adjustment of all titles, the company will immediately proceed with its plans for draining and opening up the land and dividing it up into farms. The drainage and clearing of the property of the heaviest timber will be undertaken first and simultaneously. Then parts of the tract will be cleared for farming and a part of this improved land will be divided up into farms to be sold off. The members of the company plan to reserve a large portion of the land, and to farm it themselves. For the present only part of the holdings will be placed on the market, as it is the intention of the company to encourage the development of a prosperous and progressive agricultural community. No restrictions will be placed on the property, and it will be sold to and settled by thrifty and able farmers from the North, as well as from other sections.

That part of it to be developed first will be placed on the market at very low prices, considering the quality of the land. This the company can afford to do, by reason of the value that will accrue to the remainder of its holdings when a sound and established agricultural colony is well founded there.

Has Ample Capital.

Mr. Frank C. Page stated yesterday that the company had ample capital to put through all its plans. He stated that the men who have been instrumental in the big farming developments that have worked such wonders in Moore county have for some time been looking for a large tract nearer the coast, and that they have examined a number of tracts in different counties, finally deciding upon the Allison tract in Brunswick county as most suited to their wants.

While not exactly of a similar type of soil as that found in Moore county and the sand hill section, Mr. Page stated, the Brunswick county tract is in some respects better than the other. It is a much richer soil, and will

Yesterday's Match Ties Golf Series

RALEIGH CLUB WINS OVER CAPE FEAR CLUB BY THE SCORE OF 17 TO 13.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 13.—The second match of the series between the Raleigh and Wilmington golf clubs, played today on the course of the Raleigh club, was won by the latter by the score of 17 to 13. The match was most interesting in every way, the result being in doubt until the last couple in reported their scores.

The first tournament of this series was played in Wilmington on Lee's Birthday and resulted in a victory for Wilmington by the score of 20 to 4.

After this defeat the Raleigh players returned home and got to work with determination and the result of their practice showed in their victory today in which event all of their players showed excellent form.

The individual matches resulted as follows. The Raleigh players being named first: Theo Webb, 1; C. E. Taylor, 2. R. D. W. Connor, 0; T. W. Strange, 3. C. A. Johnston, 3; W. H. French, Jr., 0. Gordon Smith, 0; W. A. Townes, 3. S. Brown Shepherd, 3; W. Buckner, 0. Dr. Will Moncure, 3; W. D. MacMillan, Jr., 0. C. E. Johnston, Jr., 3; B. H. Bridgers, 0. Walters Durham, 3; J. H. Davis, 0. Jessie Primrose, 1; M. F. H. Gouverneur, 2. E. C. Hillyer, 0; Dr. J. W. Stanley, 3. Totals, Raleigh, 17; Wilmington, 13.

Wilmington though defeated, still takes much consolation from the fact that one of their players, Mr. W. A. Townes, broke the amateur record for the new course, both for 9 and 18 holes, getting 41 and 43, a total of 84, and Nathan Mathers, the Wilmington professional, broke the professional record with 38. He also defeated Mr. Eddy, the professional of the Raleigh club, 3 and 1.

Mr. Theo Webb was the best medalist for Raleigh scoring 42-53-45, a total of 140, while W. A. Townes was best for Wilmington with 47-41-43, a total of 131.

As Raleigh won today's match the series is now a tie. The deciding match will probably be played either in Richmond or Durham possibly on May 11th. B. H. B.

University Unable To Handle Guilford

COLLEGE TEAM DEFEATS STATE INSTITUTION BY TUNE OF EIGHT TO ONE.

Greensboro, N. C., April 13.—Guilford defeated the University of North Carolina, 8 to 1 today, the pitching of Shore being beyond the reach of the Carolina players, who secured but four hits. Up to the eighth inning Watkins had held Guilford to 7 hits, but in that inning he became ill.

Aycock went in without warming up and yielded three hits and four runs.

JUNIORS WIN AGAIN.

Y. M. C. A. Youngsters Took Two Games from Lions.

The Y. M. C. A. Juniors yesterday defeated the Lions in two close games of baseball played at the Carolina Heights diamond, taking each game by the score of 3 to 2. The first game was the full nine innings, while the second went only five. Roberts, Smith and Haar performed the honors for the Junior in the first game and Silverman, Roberts and Haar in the second, while Bell and McGriffith were on the firing line for the Lions in both contests.

Up to the present, the Y. M. C. A. Junior have played eleven games this season, winning ten and losing one. The youngsters have a fast aggregation, and play the game like veterans.

PHILS ENTER TWO SUITS

Ask Damages from Chicago Federals for Disrupting Philly Club and for Damages to Club.

Chicago, April 13.—The Philadelphia National Baseball club filed two suits here today in the United States district court against the officials of the Chicago Federal League club. The suits ask for $25,000 damages and for an injunction restraining the Federal League from interfering with the Philadelphia club's players.

The first suit named as defendants Charles Weeghman, William M. Walker, James A. Gilmore, Joseph Tinker, Robert B. Ward and Walter F. Ward, the two latter of New York. It asked for an injunction restraining the defendants from alleged attempts to disrupt the Philadelphia National League team by hiring away from it players Seaton, Brennan, Killifer, Doolan and Knabe. The suit prayed that the Federal Leaguers be restrain from attempting to get these players or from other alleged attempts to interfere with the business of the Philadelphia Nationals.

Only the praecipe was filed in the damage suit. It asked for $25,000 damages from the same defendants.

Summons were issued for each of the defendants named and were placed in the hands of marshals who expected to serve them on all the defendants in this jurisdiction tonight or early tomorrow. It was expected that preliminary hearing might be obtained tomorrow.

FIRST FEDERAL LEAGUE GAME IS GOOD DRAWING CARD BALTIMORE WON.

Baltimore, April 13.—Not since the Baltimore Orioles captured three International League pennants has such a crowd witnessed a game of baseball in this city as today saw the Baltimore club, of the Federal League, defeat Buffalo 3 to 2. Four hours before the game began, there were 5,000 persons waiting and it is estimated that more than 25,000 were within the enclosure when Mayor James H. Preston threw the ball onto the diamond.

Though there were numerous errors, the game abounded in brilliant plays. Jack Quinn pitched consistent ball for the locals, and with perfect support probably would have shut out the visitors.

President Gilmore, of the Federal League, saw the game.

BUSY ROUNDING UP

Preparation for Cross-Examination of N. S. Officials

Day's News from Raleigh—Two Appeals Involve Death Sentences. Many Bankers Going to Convention—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 13.—Attorney General Bickett and Rate Expert Hillman spent a busy day rounding up in preparation for completing the cross examination of the officials of the Norfolk Southern in the taking of evidence before the special intra-State freight rate commission and for Mr. Hillman himself to go on the stand and testify against the showing that the railroad officials have made in their testimony. Mr. Hillman expects to impeach the methods of the railroad officials in getting at their figures that would prove that the rates in the Justice act are unjust and confiscatory.

In the meantime the railroad lawyers, especially General Counsel Thom, of the Southern Railway, are preparing to put Mr. Hillman through an especially severe grilling under cross examination. The work of taking testimony in this case will be completed this week and then there will be another recess in order that the counsel for the State and for the railroad companies may prepare briefs and then appear before the commission for oral argument as to the showings made.

Death Sentences Involved.

Two appeals, involving sentences of death, will be argued this week before the Supreme Court in connection with the calendar hearings for the 13th judicial district. They are State vs. Grady Lane and State vs. Jim Cameron, both from Moore county. Grady Lane is under sentence for killing George McCain, with whom he is alleged to have been gambling with cards in a swamp near Aberdeen some months ago. Lane's appeal is based principally on an alibi that he sets up as defense.

Jim Cameron is under conviction for the killing of John A. Blue on August 11th, last. Blue operated a shingle mill and the killing was in the office of the deceased in the commissary of the mill. Other appeals for this week follow: State vs. Walter Grady; Austin vs. McCollum; McDonald vs. Railroad; Fashion Co., vs. Grant; Forbis vs. Lumber Co.; Seals vs. Seals; V. & C. S. Railroad vs. S. A. L. Railroad; Kelly vs. McLeod.

Many Bankers Going to Raleigh.

President Joseph G. Brown, of the Raleigh Clearing House Association, says that there will be at least 300 bankers here May 12-14 for the annual session of the North Carolina Bankers' Association. The Clearing House Association will act as host for the visiting bankers and a programme that will be most enjoyable is being arranged. The bankers will have Hon. John Skelton Williams, the United States comptroller of the currency, here for an address. His subject will be "The Federal Reserve Banking System," a theme in which there is the most vital interest now among bankers.

For Tick Eradication.

The counties of Lenoir, Harnett and Wayne have made provision for giving aid to the cattle tick eradication work in their respective counties by the co-operation of the Federal and State departments of agriculture. The counties will provide pay for a number of assistant inspectors to work under the direction of the Federal and State experts.

Colored Teachers' Convention.

At Shaw University, this city, June 10-14, there will be in session the annual session of the North Carolina Colored Teachers' Assembly in the programme for which there will be a number of prominent white educators, including Dr. J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Governor Craig has been invited to address the assembly and will probably accept.

HOMICIDE IN ROBESON.

Negro Shot and Killed at Rowland Saturday Night.

Rowland, N. C., April 13.—Aaron Douglas, negro, was shot and instantly killed here Saturday night near midnight. The body was found later lying near the railroad track, and the presumption was that he had been killed by the train until the coroner went to hold the inquest Sunday. Then it was discovered that Douglas had been shot twice instead of being hit by the train. Sheriff Lewis states that evidence produced at the inquest showed that Jack McCallum did the shooting and he and Shep Atkins were arrested, Atkins charged with being an accessory. Ella Graham, at whose house the shooting occurred, was hunted by the officers, she also being charged as an accessory. Her husband is on the chain gang and her reputation, it is said, is anything but good. All parties concerned are colored, and were at the woman's house, all said to have been drinking.

PROF. PROCTOR RE-ELECTED.

Superintendent of Mt. Olive Schools Which Close This Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mt. Olive, N. C., April 13.—The city schools here will close Friday of this week, and the whole of this week will be given over to final examinations and commencement exercises. The chief features of the commencement exercises will be the delivery of the baccalaureaute sermon Wednesday at 11 o'clock by Rev. Jas. H. Frizzelle, pastor of the Methodist church here; an address by Prof. J. H. Highsmith, of Wake Forest, Thursday night, and a debate by members of the graduating class on the Panama Canal toll exemption issue.

This is Prof. Proctor's second year here, and his superintendency of the city schools has been so entirely satisfactory that at a recent meeting of the board of school commissioners he was re-elected for another term with practically no opposition, in fact, the entire membership of the present faculty, with one exception, was re-elected.

EASTER AT EVERGREEN.

Exercises at the Baptist Church by the Children.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Evergreen, N. C., April 13.—Friends of Misses Agnes Britt and Claytor Fields will be glad to learn of their success in getting up the children's Easter exercises, which were witnessed at the Evergreen Baptist Church last night. The exercises were closed by Rev. M. A. Stephens, of Orrum.

CHARTERS ISSUED.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 13.—The Penn Bros. Suspender Company, Madison, N. C., was chartered today with $10,000 capital authorized and $600 subscribed by H. J. Penn, H. E. Penn and others for the manufacture of suspenders, garters and accessories. Other charters are as follows:

Hendersonville Laundry, Ice & Fuel Company, Hendersonville, capital $50,000 authorized and $35,000 subscribed by H. R. Whitaker and others.

The Granville Automobile Company, of Creedmoor, capital $25,000 authorized and subscribed by S. C. Lyon and others for automobile and garage business.

The M. F. Phifer Company, of Marshville, capital $15,000 authorized and $14,750 subscribed for general mercantile business.

MR. JOHN WRIGHT BOWEN DEAD.

Prominent Citizen of Pender County Passes Away.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., April 13.—Following a few weeks' confinement to his bed, Mr. John Wright Bowen passed away Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Bowen was a Confederate veteran, having served throughout the war, and was a prisoner at Almyra, N. Y., when the four years' conflict closed. He was in his 68th year and had been a hard worker all his life. He was a farmer and a good one, and loved the work.

He raised a large family of children, all of whom, except one that died in infancy, and all were present when the end came. Those surviving besides the widow are: H. I. Bowen, of Burgaw; Rev. J. D. Bowen, Minards, S. C.; M. H. Bowen, principal of MacFeat College, Columbia, S. C.; S. V. Bowen, Norfolk, Va.; T. E. Bowen, Wilmington; L. S. Bowen, Burgaw; Miss Mabel Bowen, Burgaw; McK. Bowen, Wilmington; Perry B. Bowen, Burgaw, and Mrs. H. S. George, of Burgaw.

Mr. Bowen was born in Duplin county, but had spent most of his life in Pender, having resided for the last three years at his home near here. He was a consistent member of the Baptist church, with which he united many years ago. The funeral was conducted from the Baptist church here Sunday at 11 A. M. by Rev. C. M. Walton, an old friend and former pastor. The remains were buried in the Burgaw cemetery in the presence of a large number of friends. Many beautiful floral tributes were laid upon the grave.

WOULD BEAT THE STATE.

Guilford Holds Her First County Commencement Saturday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., April 13.—County Superintendent of Schools Thomas R. Foust announces that plans are about completed for the county commencement to be held here next Saturday. The event will be participated in by practically every public school in Guilford county and will be the first event of the kind in Guilford. The purpose of the school folks is to make it far better than anything of the kind yet held in the State.

Reports from all townships indicate that there will be a large attendance of children and parents. If the weather permits the exercises will be held in the grounds of the Central Carolina Fair Association. At 10 o'clock the procession will form by townships and will march around the race track. Following this the children will be seated in the grand stand. There will be contests in recitation and declamation, awarding of diplomas and medals. The address will be by State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner.

ONE PRIMARY FOR ALL.

Lenoir to Nominate All Candidates on May 16th.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., April 13.—One primary, to be held on May 16th, will dispose of the business of selecting all Democratic candidates in Lenoir county, for county offices, precinct committeemen and precinct delegates as well as State, Congressional, judicial and State Senatorial candidates. This was the decision of the county executive committee Saturday evening.

This is unusual in Lenoir, as heretofore precinct meetings have been held to select delegates to the county convention to select delegates to the State, judicial and Senatorial convention, and the county candidates have been selected at meetings later in the Summer. All reports will be had at a county convention on May 23rd. Candidates are given until five days before the primary to file announcements.

MRS. CARRIE C. SHINE DEAD.

Wife of Prominent Citizen of Mount Olive Passes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mt. Olive, N. C., April 13.—Mrs. Carrie C. Shine, widow of the late Joseph Shine, and one of Mount Olive's oldest and most highly respected citizens, died at her home here Saturday, at the ripe age of 76. Although she had been in feeble health for some time past, she had been seriously ill for only a week with paralysis of the stomach. A number of near relatives, but no children, survive her.

The remains were interred in the local cemetery Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. Peter McIntyre, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which deceased was a member, conducted the funeral services, assisted by Dr. W. B. Oliver, of the Baptist church.

REV. C. H. DURHAM RESIGNS

After Serving 14 Years As Pastor First Baptist Church of Lumberton, He Goes to Winston-Salem.

(By Long Distance Telephone.)

Lumberton, N. C., April 13.—At a meeting of the congregation of the First Baptist church here held tonight, the pastor, Rev. C. H. Durham, tendered his resignation to accept a call to Winston-Salem. Mr. Durham's decision to leave Lumberton came as a great shock not only to the church he has served faithfully for 14 years, but to all this section regardless of denomination. Mr. Durham will fill his first appointment in Winston the first Sunday in May.

Since Rev. Mr. Durham came here, the First Baptist church has enjoyed remarkable growth, in numbers, in financial strength and in the extent and effectiveness of its activities. One of the most handsome church edifices of the denomination in the State has been built.

Mr. Durham is very popular, not only in Lumberton, but throughout the county, and has served several years as moderator of the Robeson Baptist Association. Also, he is recognized throughout the State as one of the ablest and most popular ministers of the denomination, having been repeatedly elected president of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

THREE PARTIES TO ENTER.

Progressives and Republicans to Have Candidates in Guilford Primary.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., April 13.—Members of the Progressive and Republican parties say that each of these parties will have a county ticket in the field to be voted on in the legalized primary for all parties to be held May 16th. The slate has not been made up, but will no doubt be soon. It is said that former District Attorney A. E. Holton is being groomed for the Republican Congressional candidate and will make a vigorous campaign against Congressman Stedman.

BREAD MUST BE WRAPPED.

Rocky Mount Aldermen Enact Some Sanitary Legislation.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., April 13.—Hereafter your loaf bread goes wrapped in this city. This was the decision of the board of aldermen at a recent meeting, and it is understood that this is one of the first bits of local legislation that will effect a more sanitary handling of food products.

Helping Kidneys By Clearing Blood

A Function Greatly Assisted By a Well-Known Remedy.

Most readers will be interested to more clearly understand why analysis of urine is so important. In the use of S. S. S. to purify the blood, its action is a stimulant to the myriad of fine blood vessels that make up the constructive tissues of the kidneys. All the blood from all over the body must pass through the kidneys. They act as testers and assayers. And according to what they allow to pass out in the urine, both as to quantity and materials, the health of the kidneys and the quality of the blood is determined. The catalytic energy forced by S. S. S. is shown in the urine. It is also demonstrated in the skin. And as the blood continues to sweep through the kidneys the dominating nature of S. S. S., acting as it does through all the avenues of elimination, shows a marked decrease of disease manifestations as demonstrated by urine analysis. This assistance is a great relief to the kidneys. The body wastes are more evenly distributed to the emunctories; their elimination is stimulated by the tonic action afforded the liver, lungs, skin and kidneys. Thus, in cases of rheumatism, cystitis, chronic sore throat, huskiness of voice, bronchitis, asthma and the myriad of other [illegible] indications of weak kidney action, [illegible] purify your blood with S. S. S., so it will enable the tissues to rebuild the cellular strength and regain the normal health.

S. S. S. is prepared by The Swift Specific Co., 527 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and if you have any deep-seated or obstinate blood trouble, write to their Medical Dept. for free advice.

Nature Still "Casts Out Devils"

If you don't think they're REAL devils, just let them accumulate as in constipation and biliousness. A whole brood of demons appear, such as indigestion, flatulency, heartburns, palpitation, dizziness, jaundice, congestion of the liver. Later these grow into Bright's Disease, Typhoid, Malaria, etc.

There's one thing these devils can't stand, and that is Bile. Bile is Nature's great cleanser and disinfectant. When it's dammed up, all the above troubles appear. Release it and they disappear like mist before the rising sun. That's why salts, mineral waters, oil and common laxatives fail. They don't release the Bile, but merely flush the intestines.

Podophyllin (common Mandrake or May-Apple Root) is Nature's own gift to mankind. Since the days of the patriarchs it has proven the one harmless and certain cure for constipation, because it releases the dammed-up Bile. (See Encyclopedia Britannica.)

PoDoLax is a Podophyllin formula made pleasant in taste and action, and is for the whole family, children especially.

You can reason. You know that a free flow of Bile insures a healthy body. You know that no food would be fit for blood food without the Bile to purify it. We insist that PoDoLax will start the Bile—that it is done gently without griping—without sickening, and we guarantee it.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC. Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday at $6 per year; $3 for six months; $1.50 for three months; 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate and like matter will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, to persons carrying a regular account, or, if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, excursions, society meetings, political meetings etc., will be charged under the same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper, in the discretion of the editors.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and, if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

ALL DRAFTS, checks, express money orders and postal money orders for the paper should be made payable, and all communications should be addressed, to THE WILMINGTON STAR CO.

Never cuss a man out, and especially be careful not to cuss him out of the party.

A fashion note says ladies' hats are to be smaller, but that does not mean that the price will be any less.

Nervousness is not catching but it does not take a nervous man long to get on the nerves of all the members of the family.

The country has not yet recognized General Villa as a belligerent, but at the same time it is compelled to admit that he is belicose.

Gee! Those new styles of hats for men. They look "rakish, what'll you takish," but they are a good match for the debutante slouch.

Says the Columbia State: "The flies have begun to swarm." Then it is time to put Columbia's only square meal in the refrigerator.

The mercury continues to take a drop every now and then, but it should be prohibited from doing that in territory where prohibition prohibits.

If we are going to make those Mexicans salute the flag, they should be reminded that trade is not the only thing that goes around following the flag.

After some people manage to climb the social ladder they are afraid to look back for fear they will see some kinfolks who haven't even seen the ladder.

McDuff is the name of a Boston man who claims that his wife knocked him down. In cultured circles they will say that Lady McDuff put one over on Mc.

The Solid South is about to be broken by the cost of those modish Spring gowns that New York is sending down for our girls, with special emphasis on "ours."

It is said "Colonel Roosevelt will soon come from South America." By George, it would seem more like the real thing if it were stated that he will emerge from South America.

In Japan it is an old custom that when a man did not pay his debts, his creditors were authorized to laugh in public at his expense. How would you like to let everybody in North Carolina get the laugh on you?

The full name of the English noble woman who recently secured a divorce is Lady Randolph-Spencer-Churchill-West. She has decided to cut out the last hyphen and the West end of her name, but that need not do much damage to her name, as the rule now is to attach another man, another hphen and another name.

The free tolls proposition may be more or less a local issue on the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Gulf coasts, but nine-tenths of the country far distant from the coast will want to know why it should have to bear most of the burden of a free gift to American shipping, which is the patriotic name for the coastwise shipping monopoly.

A New York man wants a divorce from his wife because she got all his money and then deserted him. It has been suggested that in order to save the expense of a divorce suit he ought to do something that will cause her to bring suit, but we rather think the gentleman knows his business. Evidently he wants to sue so he can get back some of his money by the alimony route. That would look more like getting money from home.

Captain Hobson was beaten for the Senate in Alabama but that is no reason why the press should keep on beating him till he quits the Democratic party. The party should keep all the Democrats it has and do its best to get all it can from among the Republican and Bull Moosers who may get tired staying out of the people's party. Most of the men of other parties are prodigal sons for whom the fatted calf should be barbecued if they will only give up their prodigal ways. A good man gone wrong would be willing to come back if there were not some men who are mean enough to hand him a sandbag before he can get in the ranks with the faithful.

ANOTHER GREAT DEVELOPMENT PROJECT.

The Star this morning carries a local story of great interest, and it is only another addition to the conspicuous evidence of the wonderful development that we are to witness in the incomparable agricultural region around Wilmington. That news story will speak for itself, and following so close upon the recent announcement concerning the great farms colony to be established at Bolton, it will serve to keep attention fixed upon this splendid portion of North Carolina.

The new development referred to involves the purchase of 43,000 acres of land in a solid tract in Brunswick county, just beyond the Cape Fear from Wilmington, and the best part of it is that the deal is closed and all the plans of development have been formulated by such developers as the Messrs. Page, sons of the Hon. Walter H. Page, ambassador to Great Britain. They have associates of strong financial standing, and not only is the company to establish one of its own notable farming and dairying enterprises, but it is to drain the section and settle upon some of the broad acres a thrifty colony of homeseekers of the very best class to be had.

This part of the Nation's Garden Spot is coming up all the time, and the beginning is but a circumstance to what is bound to follow.

TAR HEELS SUPPORT WILSON.

The United States, having agreed in the Hay-Pauncefote treaty not to discriminate against the shipping of any nation in operating the Panama Canal, North Carolinians seem to think it is a better idea to comply with the Nation's pledge, and to save its honor, than to insist on tolls exemption for American coastwise shipping. Of course, a great many North Carolinians don't know but that it would be a good idea to give American shipping such an advantage that no foreign ships could possibly compete with them at all in trading through the canal, but as the Nation seems to have agreed to give the ships of the world some sort of showing, it is their opinion that the Nation's good faith must be sustained so other nations will not be convinced that this is the great National piker.

Feeling that the Nation's honor is the chief thing at stake, and ignoring the high purpose of just about keeping the ships of other nations from being able to send their hulks through the canal in competition with the American merchant marine, they sympathize with President Wilson's effort to see that the Nation carries out its solemn agreement with other nations. Senator Gore seems to have taken it on himself to find out how the delegates to the Baltimore convention stand on that free tolls plank and is polling them to ascertain how many stand with President Wilson in his effort to have the tolls exemption clause repealed. According to "Red Buck" Bryant, the well known Washington correspondent, two of the North Carolina delegates have been heard from in no uncertain terms. One of them is Mr. Nathan O'Berry, president of the Enterprise Lumber Company, of Goldsboro, and that well known North Carolinian writes:

"The Democratic party for 50 years has stated in its platform that it was opposed to subsidies of any character or kind. I do not believe that its sentiment in this respect has changed during this period. I do not believe there were five per cent. of the delegates at that convention, if they had understood that this plank was in the platform, but that would have opposed it. The North Carolina Pine Association consisting of 80 of the largest lumber manufacturers in the States of Virginia and North and South Carolina, at a meeting held in Norfolk, Va., last week, by a unanimous vote instructed the secretary to write each Senator and Congressman urging them to vote for a repeal of this measure. A great many of these men are large shippers of lumber by water, but they were patriotic enough to want to see the honor of this continent maintained."

Mr. O'Berry seems to look at it from the standpoint of an American first, then from the viewpoint of a consistent Democrat and as a man of large business interests. He is an official of the North Carolina Pine Association, and that association seems to stand for American honor, while perhaps mindful of the fact that free tolls might help the shipping trust but would not be of the least earthly benefit to lumber shippers in the way of better freight rates and in no wise a benefit to consumers of lumber.

Lawyer Albert L. Cox, of Raleigh, is another North Carolina delegate who writes to Senator Gore that he is in hearty accord with President Wilson. He declares also that he feels sure that had the matter of free tolls been discussed openly on the floor of the Baltimore convention, the National convention which nominated Wilson would not have put any such undemocratic plank in the party's platform. We have in the replies of Messrs. O'Berry and Cox expression of Democratic sober second thought and the American idea that the word of the United States ought to be considered over every other question at issue.

"MY FRIEND AND AIDE."

The tragedy of the Titanic two years ago will be recalled in a memorable way at Augusta, Ga., today, which is the anniversary of that appalling marine disaster, yet so fresh in the memories of the people in all parts of the world. In the Georgia city that sad event will be specially recalled by the unveiling of the Butt Memorial Bridge, erected by the Butt Memorial Association and the city of Augusta as a memorial to the late Captain Archibald Butt, the ill fated military aide of President William Howard Taft.

The gallant Captain Butt, an officer in the United States Army, went down with hundreds of others whose only grave is the silent depths of the remorseless ocean. No word comes back from the brave Archie Butt, but his heroic conduct on that fateful night of April 14, 1912, will live in the memories of all who heard of his last act of facing death to save the women and children who would have been engulfed as the great ship sank amid the icebergs and cold waters of the briny deep. The last the world heard of him was when he stood with drawn revolver, shoving men back and sternly insisting, "Women and children first"!

Captain Butt was a native of Augusta and the people of the home city honor themselves in paying a lasting tribute to his memory, his gallantry, his fortitude and his bravery. He is a world hero, and while there are many, his self-sacrifice was so notable that he deserves a lasting monument in the midst of those who knew him best. Today that memorial will be unveiled in the presence of a great throng of silent admirers, hushed by sorrow and inspired by devotion to an ideal portraying the noblest characteristic of man. All mankind stands uncovered when it recalls the last act of the Georgian who chose death that women and children should be rescued from a terrible fate.

Former President Taft will be the principal speaker on this memorial occasion in Augusta today. His theme will be "Archie Butt, My Friend and Aide." Mr. Taft puts friendship first, and it displays the best side of that distinguished American when he chooses rather to pay tribute to a "friend" than to his aide, his personal guard. Impressive Masonic ceremonies will be a feature of the exercises, but nothing will be so impressive as the tribute of a former American President to friendship rather than the honor of rank.

THE REFERENDUM EXTRAORDINARY.

The United States Chamber of Commerce is pretty well satisfied that the referendum is a good thing, and that the people can decide what is right and what is all out of whack when a big question is submitted to their judgment. We thought it was coming to that, and we think it is worth while to pay more than passing attention to the fact that the United States Chamber of Commerce wants to crack Congress over the head with a nation-wide referendum of some description or other.

The Associated Press, that purveyor of good things to the curiosity and intelligence of the American public, let it be known over Sunday that the proposed anti-trust legislation has so annoyed and worried the United States Chamber of Commerce that its special committee has formulated a Nation-wide referendum to be submitted to the commercial organizations of the 47 States of the United States of America. The special committee has given deep thought to the Inter-State Trade Commission bill which President Wilson wants Congress to pass, and as the special committee thinks it ought to be passed along to the junk heap, it wants the commercial organizations to condemn such proposed legislation as a step in the wrong direction, if not a regular parade that will scare the business interests of the country.

The United States Chamber of Commerce is a bully organization, but we don't know why it does not want to trust Congress to look out for the business interests of the country while it is trying to do something to protect the interests of the people. We rather fancy that if the Inter-State Trade Commission bill is not a good thing for the whole country, it will hardly get by Congress. It is perfectly legitimate, however, for the commercial organizations to do some real studying on some of the big questions of the day.

CHARLOTTE'S TRADE EXCURSION

The Norfolk Southern's extension from Raleigh to Charlotte gives the Queen City new trade opportunities in a hitherto inaccessible territory, so the business men of Charlotte are going to make the most of that opportunity. The Observer says arrangements are being made for a trade excursion to be run as far as Star, a station west of Raleigh, and it is probable that all the business and manufacturing interests of Charlotte will be represented on the trip.

The excursion will stop at all the stations on the route and those who accompany it will see the business men throughout the new territory which is now in close contact with Charlotte as a business center. No doubt, the business men and manufacturers of Charlotte ultimately will look all over the Norfolk Southern as far as Eastern North Carolina for opportunities that are open for many lines with which Norfolk will not be a formidable competitor.

The Mexican rebels have erected a guillotine so they can cut off the heads of the Federals who fall into their hands. In retreating from the field of battle, no Federal should lose his head during the excitement attending his effort to get to the rear.

CURRENT COMMENT.

We had never considered Mr. Watts the boss. We thought he only did the work.—Durham Herald.

The assertion is now made, doubtless with inimical and sinister inspiration, that the Secretary of the Navy has piled another embarrassment upon his chief, who had troubles enough before. It is set forth that the order for the abolition of the wine mess has placed the President in a position where he will surely be condemned if he does, and condemned if he doesn't.—Greensboro News.

The Wilmington Star makes note of a compromise between the railroads in Georgia and the traveling men's association in the matter of mileage tickets, the roads having formulated a plan which was acceptable to the drummers. Hereafter in Georgia interchangeable mileage coupon books will be restored and the roads will put on sale stop-over tickets, whereby the traveling man may drop off at as many stopping places as desirable between the starting point and the destination specified on the ticket. It has been some time since The Observer has heard any complaint about the mileage system in this State and it is probable that since the arrangement made at Raleigh last year, the traveling public is satisfied. At any rate, the mileage book with modifications of some sort or another, seems to have become an established institution on the railroads.—Charlotte Observer.

COMMEMORATING TITANIC DISASTER.

To the Editor of The Star:

The writer has been asked by several ladies who were present at the memorial ceremonies last year at Wrightsville Beach to call to the attention of those interested that the memorial services are to be perpetuated on this, the second anniversary of the most awful ship catastrophe known in modern times, if not in the world's history. It is unfortunate that several of the most prominent women who took part in the first memorial exercises a year ago will not be present today, notably Mrs. E. May Glenn toon, Mrs. Longfellow, who sang, and Toon, Mrs. Longfelow, who sang, and

It is remembered that Mrs. Toon composed the magnificent hymn, "The Sinking of the Titanic," and it was sung at the services. Let us hope that it will be sung again for 'tis said that the words and music are sublime. The writer has been informed that the Rev. F. B. Clausen, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, had charge of the memorial occasion last year. Let us hope that he and the other pastors in the city will assist us in this commemoration. The time set for the casting of the wreath into the bosom of the Atlantic is at 4 o'clock this afternoon. It is hoped that the people will turn out en masse, and that it will be a great success.

SHOULD BE ONE THOUSANND DOLLARS.

To the Editor of The Star:

Being a regular visitor to the James Walker Memorial Hospital and seeing the need of the sun parlor and porch for the women's ward, I rejoice that Miss Swain has called for subscriptions and has found a ready response from our people. But I think she has set the cost at a figure too small. I would suggest that the amount given be one thousand dollars. I do this because it is already seen that the original estimate is not enough and to make the permanent improvement will cost nearly a thousand dollars. Friends, please think of this and make your gifts at once and sufficient.

Yours for the great need.

BURGAW NEWS NOTES.

Some of the Pender Farmers Are Building Stock Fences.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., April 13.—It is reported here that the farmers in some sections of Pender county are building fences to keep up their stock since the stock law became effective, and it is thought they will gradually fall into line in the observance of the law, since it is becoming more and more apparent that there is nothing else to do.

The ladies here are looking forward to the meeting here this week of the Presbyterial with pleasant anticipations. They are making arrangements to take care of the visitors in regulation Burgaw style. The meetings will be held in the Presbyterian church.

At the school auditorium Friday evening, "The Finger of Scorn" was presented to a large audience, by local talent, and judging by the applause it was greatly enjoyed. It is understood that the troupe will present it at Wallace Wednesday evening.

A NURSE TAKES DOCTOR'S ADVICE

And is Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Euphemia, Ohio.—"Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nausea which always meant a lay-off from work for two to four days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham remedies but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 47 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described in one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or any one the relief it gave me in the first three months. It put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 18 years I have not paid out two dollars to a doctor, and have been blest with excellent health for a wowoman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have been a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting I cannot over estimate the value of good health. I have now earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing. I have recommended the Compound to many with good results, as it is excellent to take before and after childbirth."—Miss EVELYN ADELIA STEWART, Euphemia, Ohio.

TAX LISTERS APPOINTED

Board of Commissioners Will Not Appropriate Money for Securing Bank—Other Matters.

The appointment of tax listers for this year and a decision, based upon the advice of the county attorney, not to appropriate any of the county funds for securing a branch of the Federal reserve bank for Wilmington were the principal matters disposed of by the Board of County Commissioners, which met in special session yesterday afternoon.

Acting upon the recommendation of the last grand jury, a communication was ordered sent to the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company requesting them to remove at once all telephone poles that are on the right-of-way of any public road in the county. The grand jury also complained of the condition of the Holly Shelter road and Mr. R. A. Burnett, superintendent of roads, was requested to make an inspection of the road. It was the opinion of the board that the condition of the road had greatly improved within the last two months, some work having recently been done on the road.

Following are the tax listers appointed upon the recommendation of Auditor J. A. Orrell:

Wilmington Township — Messrs. Walter Rutland and H. K. Nash.

Cape Fear Township—Mr. J. Herbert Johnston.

Federal Point Township—Mr. S. T. Keyes.

Harnett Township—Messrs. J. A. Montgomery and A. B. Sandlin.

The meeting was presided over by Chairman M. S. Willard and a record of the proceedings kept by Mr. W. A. Williams, clerk of the board. The others present were Messrs. L. W. Moore and J. T. Kerr.

Reserve Bank Proposition.

Mr. Hugh MacRae, chairman of the central committee in charge of the campaign for securing a branch of the Federal reserve bank, appeared before the board to ask that they make a specific appropriation without any strings. It is estimated, he said, that it will require at least $4,000 to carry out the campaign which has been inaugurated, and he thought that the county could well afford to make an appropriation when it was assured that the citizens and trade organizations will spend at least $3 for every $1 spent by the county.

He considered it of prime importance that everyone put his shoulder to the wheel and work for Wilmington. It was through organization and the co-operation of all her citizens that Richmond was able to land the reserve bank, he stated, and it would be by the same means that Wilmington would have to win. He showed how it would be a benefit to those in the county because it would bring considerable money here, and under the new law farm mortgages are as good collateral as stock exchange has been, and even better in many instances.

He emphasized the importance of advertising the city and its resources and declared that the campaign that will be waged will be of immense value, even if the branch is not secured. He did not think that the commissioners should block themselves with legal technicalities but should remember that the purpose was a good one, and act accordingly. They spend money for building roads and bridges, all for the common good, and on the same principle, he thought, they could appropriate this money.

County Attorney W. P. Stacy was asked by the board for his opinion and stated that he had looked into the matter carefully and was forced to the conclusion that it would be illegal to make the appropriation for the purpose asked for. It would be going out into commercial development and the county hasn't this right. While the county has the right to build roads and bridges, he stated, it does not have the right to build public institutions. Before the county can appropriate money even for a county fair it must secure this right by legislation, he said. While he was in sympathy with Mr. MacRae's position he did not think that the board could give the money.

Commissioner Moore expressed himself as favorable to the proposition provided the board had the legal right to give the money. On his motion the resolution adopted at the last meeting appropriating $750 conditionally, was rescinded.

Complaint From Winter Park.

Woodus Kellum, Esq., appeared before the board in behalf of Mr. C. E. Hall, of Winter Park, to make complaint about water which, when it rains, backs up on the latter's land. He was informed that the matter of drainage at Winter Park was referred to Commissioner Moore at the last meeting and that he had made arrangements to have an engineer make an investigation.

A duplicate order for $3.50 was ordered made for Mr. W. J. Mallard, who had lost the original. A duplicate check was ordered sent to the Galion Iron & Manufacturing Company for a road machine upon their arranging a satisfactory personal bond indemnifying the county from loss in case the original check which has been lost should be paid.

Mr. E. Cavenaugh, of Winter Park, wanted two lots at Winter Park reduced from an assessed value to $75 each. The board thought the assessment too high but did not feel it had a right to change it. Upon the recommendation of the auditor the assessment of $1,800 against Sarah Dlugin was not changed. An application for reduction was made at the last meeting.

Upon the recommendation of Dr. John Thames, assistant county health officer, the application of J. T. Hancock, of Wrightsville, for help from the outdoor poor fund was not allowed.

On account of the accumulation of papers filed for record in the office of the register of deeds an appropriation of $65 was made to employ an extra clerk for one month. This was done upon the recommendation of the county attorney and the county auditor after application was made by Register of Deeds John Haar for extra help. Commissioner Moore expressed it as his opinion that the clerks employed in this office should be required to work for eight hours a day. Because of the absence of two members of the board the matter went over to the next meeting.

Petition Received.

A petition from the residents of Winter Park and Edgewood relative to green slime which accumulates on water in that section and also relative to burial of night soil, was referred to Commissioner Moore for attention.

A communication from Mr. P. H. Raspberry, superintendent of the county farm, was read calling attention to the fact that fires, evidently caused by passing railroad engines, had burned a considerable amount of pine straw on the farm.

The board was asked by Fred W. Bonitz, Esq., to return the poll tax for John Bennett, which had been paid by his mother unsuspectingly when she went to pay the tax on a lot which was purchased from Bennett by his father before his death. The matter was referred to the auditor.

Messrs. C. Ed Taylor and W. D. McCraig, administrators of the estate of the late J. B. Mercer, asked for a rebate of the taxes on the property given in last year by Mr. Mercer. The board was of the opinion that they had no right to give the rebate.

A bill from the Harriss Typewriting Company for $17.50 for reporting a case in the Recorder's court was held over until the next meeting because no one seemed to know just what it was for. A bill from Mr. C. S. Burnett for $5.50 for automobile hire for carrying Coroner John J. Fowler to view the remains of a negro found dead in the woods near Castle Haynes sometime ago was ordered paid.

Communication From Supt. Blair.

A communication was read from Supt. John J. Blair, of the city graded schools, enclosing plans for a decorated entrance to Winter Park near the car station was read and the matter referred to Commissioner Moore. The plans were prepared by Mr. James Gause, the architect.

Chairman Willard called attention to the fact that many of the indictments brought last Fall against those who failed to list their taxes had never gone any further. He thought that something ought to be done to make those pay the taxes who had failed to do so.

DOOLEY DAMAGE CASE UP

Second Trial of Suit Against Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company —Other Cases Yesterday.

Superior Court, adjourned from last Monday, convened again yesterday morning for the trial of civil cases, Judge Chas. M. Cooke, of Louisburg, presiding. Most of yesterday was devoted to the hearing of the case brought by J. T. Dooley against the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, which, when tried once before, resulted in a verdict of $7,500 for the plaintiff, a new trial, however, being granted by the Supreme Court. The case will go to the jury this morning.

The plaintiff is suing for the death of his son, who was employed as a fireman on the Seaboard, and who was killed in a wreck at Bostick several years ago. When the case was tried formerly, and resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff on the grounds of negligence by the defendant, the Supreme Court ordered a new trial as to the amount of damages. This time the fight is solely on the amount of damages. The amount originally asked for was $40,000.

The plaintiff submitted his evidence yesterday, following the selection of the jury. The defendant offered no evidence. This morning the attorneys will argue the case, and Judge Cooke will then charge the jury. The jury is composed as follows:

C. D. Gilbert, M. MacRae, John M. Bremmer, A. G. Rockers, J. J. Hopkins, George B. Webster, W. P. Brock, Charles Childs, E. Philyaw, W. T. Morris, J. O. Hinton and Giles W. Westbrook.

Jno. D. Bellamy & Son appear for the Seaboard, while the plaintiff is represented by J. O. Carr, Esq.

In the case of the City of Wilmington against the estate of N. Jacobi, a back tax controversy, judgment for the plaintiff was returned yesterday.

Judgment for dismissal was entered in the case of Edward Hansley against the American Light & Power Company and a judgment for non-suit was ordered in the action brought by the Wilmington Slate & Roofing Co., O. Pearsall and others. A compromise was effected in the suit of Vance Cottle against L. Garcia, the defendant to pay the costs.

MR. W. M. TURLEY DEAD.

Aged Citizen Died at Home of Daughter Here Sunday Afternoon.

Many friends learned with keen regret yesterday of the death of Mr. Wm. M. Turley, an aged and respected citizen of Wilmington, which occurred Sunday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Robert Harker, No. 302 Bladen street. He was 89 years old and had been in feeble health for two years. Up until that time he remained exceptionally strong for a man of his age and held a position with the Atlantic Coast Line.

He was a native of Columbus county, but had lived in this city for more than a half century. He was well known to many Wilmington people. It was his privilege to live a long and useful life and he will be greatly missed. He was a devout and faithful member of Mascnboro Baptist church.

Surviving him besides his aged wife are three sons, Messrs. D. T. and W. H. Turley, of this city, and C. A. Turley, of Lakeland, Fla., and three daughters, Mrs. Robert Hacker, Mrs. Daniel Davis, Mrs. J. E. Silva and Mrs. George Davis, all of this city. He is also survived by 36 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren. They will have the tender sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

The funeral was conducted yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of his daughter, No. 302 Bladen street, Rev. J. A. Sullivan, pastor of the Brooklyn Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. The services were attended by many friends. The interment was in the family burying ground at Masonboro.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. A. Townsend, William Smith, William Spooner and J. Bowden.

BEFORE THE RECORDER.

Negro Woman Sent to County Farm for Selling Whiskey.

After many months of warfare on the blind tigers, conducted by negro men, the police seem to have turned their attention to the women, or, at least, they are arresting a large number these days, five being before the Recorder yesterday morning. Lucy Sampson, Fannie Williams, Rachel Revels and Mary Ella Smith got three months each on the county farm on this charge. Carney McGee, colored, was charged with selling whiskey, but the State didn't prove its case, and he was discharged.

George Robertson wasn't guilty of disorderly conduct, nor of assault with a deadly weapon, as charged, and was discharged.

Joe Hall, colored, was said to have cut at a woman, and he got three months on the county roads.

Probable cause was found in a case against Willie Harriss, colored, charged with embezzlement, and the case sent to the Superior Court. He was recognized for his appearance.

Walter Murphy, colored, was fined $5 and the costs for assault and battery. George Gibbs, colored, charged with violating a city ordinance, was taxed with the costs. Willie Gavins and Henrietta Joseph were taxed with the costs for engaging in an affray.

OBSERVANCE OF EASTER

Cloudy Skies Marred Day Here Somewhat—Music in Churches. The Fashion Parade.

Sandwiched between two perfect spring days, Easter Sunday here was marred to some extent by a canopy of slaty clouds which hung threateningly overhead, though the downpour which threatened materialized only to a slight extent during the morning, and then not in sufficient degree to prove disastrous to the display of feminine finery on parade.

The gloomy outlook overhead, however, proved no deterrent to the observance of the day in the various churches, and large congregations crowded the different houses of worship. The churches for the most part were decorated with banks and masses of flowers, the sermons were impressive and full of significance of the occasion, but the feature of the services was, of course, the music. For weeks the choirs had been practicing the programmes arranged for the day and seldom have the Wilmington church-goers heard better or more perfectly rendered Easter carols and music than Sunday.

But the day, aside from its religious aspects, was a notable one from the sartorial standpoint, and femininity was out in all the glory of new and splendid raiment that would have put the coat of Joseph to shame, equally from point of design and startling effects in color and color combinations. Milady was out in all her glory, and the fact that she had to carry a parasol, adding a touch somewhat out of place with her new hat, new dress, new shoes and corsage bouquet, was the only thing that marred her pleasure.

Of course, quite a number of the male element also appeared in new garb, but notwithstanding the fact that masculine clothing this season probably runs more to extremes than in years, the men served only as a drear and drab background for the splendor of the feminine littered landscape.

It was woman's day exclusively, and Adonis himself, clad in the very latest English cut suit, spats, shoes and hat, would have stood little chance of attracting attention in the face of the vernal note predominating in the attire of the daughters of Eve.

A little "newsie", standing on one of the prominent streets, watched the outpouring from one of the churches, with a critical eye on the feminine display.

"Believe me," he remarked, "them's some togs."

And he had expressed it all.

Music in the Churches.

The music in all the churches was all especially arranged for the happy Easter season and in many of the churches, notably the Episcopal and Catholic, elaborate musical programs were rendered. The standard set in previous years made it hard to excel, but it is said by those who have been here for many years that the music was better than ever before.

According to a custom established many years ago, at the hour of sunrise the children of the Sunday school of St. James' Episcopal church sang Easter carols from the top of the tower. As their beautiful sweet voices singing the familiar words of the story that never grows old, rang out across the streets and alleys many were awakened from their slumbers and listened with rapt attention. At the morning service at this church at 11 o'clock there was an elaborate musical programme by the church choir, which was most impressive as well as inspiring. The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and other spring flowers which made a pretty sight. At 4:30 o'clock there was a children's choral service which was also attended by a large congregation and was a most impressive service.

At St. John's Episcopal church the congregations were unusually large, both at the early communion service, when music was rendered by the children's choir, and at the 11 o'clock communion service, when music was rendered by the senior choir. In the evening there was a worshipful service, when the rector, Rev. W. E. Cox, made a short talk. Especially worthy of mention on the musical programme was the rendering of the Kyrie and Gloria Excelsis from Concone Mass in F by a quartette composed of Mr. W. O. S. Southerland, tenor; Mr. F. P. Harrell, bass; Mrs. M. H. Longfellow, soprano, and Mrs. Percy Smith, alto. For the offertory "O Gladsome Gift," by Sir Robert Sullivan, was rendered.

At Fifth Street Methodist church Sunday night a special musical programme was rendered by the choir of St. James. This service was attended by more than a thousand people, the entire capacity of the church being taxed to its utmost, and many had to be turned away. The service was most impressive. Especially worthy of note on the programme was the rendition of Gounod's "Serenade" by Mrs. Meares Harriss on the violin. The morning service at this church was also largely attended.

At the First Baptist church Sunday morning a choir of 300 voices sang the Easter songs and a large congregation was present. Mr. A. S. Holden was present and the choir was seated in the balcony so that the rendition of the songs was most impressive. A special musical programme was also rendered at night.

At the Church of the Good Shepherd there was a special Sunrise Communion service when the children sang Easter carols. Special music was rendered at the other services also.

At St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral a most impressive and solemn musical programme was rendered at the morning services. At the night services the Psalms in the Gregorian chant were sung.

Practically all the other churches in the city had special music, though not so elaborate as those mentioned above.

ELECT NEW OFFICERS.

Young Men's Hebrew Association Held Meeting Sunday Night.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected at the regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Hebrew Association held in its rooms at No. 205 1-2 Market street Sunday night. As a token of their esteem and appreciation, the members of the association presented the outgoing chairman, Mr. H. Land, with a loving cup.

The presentation in behalf of the members was made by Mr. M. L. Horowitz, in a short address in which he spoke most highly of the splendid service which Mr. Land had rendered. Mr. Land accepted the gift with evident deep feeling and expressed his appreciation of the hearty co-operation which had been given him in carrying on the work of the association.

Following are the officers which were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Alex. Kosch.
Vice President—B. May.
Secretary—M. J. Klavans.
Treasurer—I. Shain.

WILL CELEBRATE JUBILEE

Banquet and Reception Today at Belmont Abbey—Local Features Next Saturday to Monday.

The celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Episcopal Consecration of Rt. Rev. Leo Haid, D. D., O. S. B., preparatory to his sailing for Europe Saturday, April 25th, will begin at Belmont Abbey today at 12:30 o'clock, when a farewell banquet will be given, followed by a reception to the Bishop by the young ladies of Sacred Heart College, Belmont, and will extend through a series of services and social features in this city, ending next Monday night.

In addition to the presence of the Bishop and a number of other distinguished guests from Belmont Abbey, the occasion here will be rendered notable by the attendance of many distinguished clergymen of the Catholic church from many parts of the country. Various committees have been appointed to assist in the reception and entertainment of the visitors, and are now busy making the necessary arrangements.

The visiting clergymen will begin arriving here the end of the week. Bishop Haid will arrive next Saturday morning at 7 o'clock, and will be met at the station by a committee and escorted to the residence of Rev. Father Dennen, whose guest he will be while here. Saturday night at 8 o'clock there will be a children's entertainment.

Next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock Pontifical high mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral, in which the visiting Bishops and clergy will take part. The sermon will be preached by Rr. Rev. O'Connel, D. D.,

At 8 o'clock Sunday evening there will be Pontifical vespers and benediction, with sermon by Bishop Haid.

Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock there will be a Pontifical Requiem in memory of the deceased benefactors, priests and sisters of the Catholic church in North Carolina, with a short memorial sermon by Bishop Haid.

At 11:30 o'clock an excursion will be given to Wrightsville Beach, under the auspices of the local Knights of Columbus. Luncheon will be served at the Hanover Seaside Club.

The party will return to the city at 5 P. M. and at 9:10 P. M. a reception will be tendered the Rt. Rev. Jubilarian by the ladies of the Sanctuary Society at the cathedral residence. This will bring the local features of the celebration to a close.

Bishop Haid will, in company with a number of other distinguished prelates, sail for Europe and Italy Saturday, April 25th, from Hoboken, N. J., on the S. S. Berlin, of the North German Lloyd Line. The party will be in Europe several months.

The committees appointed to have charge of the local features of the celebration are as follows:

SPRING MILLINERY

This splendid show of New Hats mirrors the newest note of the leading Paris modistes. Many of them are exact copies of Imported French originals. Others are the conception of our own clever experts, inspired, of course, by Paris influence, but so adapted to American ideas that many of the most discriminating Wilmington women will undoubtedly prefer them to the Foreign creations. Prices are pleasantly modest.

WILMINGTONIAN CLAIMS BRIDE IN GREENSBORO.

The following from Sunday's Greensboro News will be of interest to the groom's many friends here:

"A quiet wedding, though beautiful in its simplicity, was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. H. Foushee, 418 West Washington street, yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when Miss Myrtle Alderman happily became the brige of G. Robt. Best, of Wilmington. The wedding was informal and comes as a surprise to the many friends of the couple in this city and elsewhere.

"As Miss Margaret Adams played the wedding march the bride and groom entered the parlor and marched to the front corner, where they were pronounced man and wife by Rev. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the First Baptist church, and pastor of the bride. Only close relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony.

"Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Best took a train for Warsaw, where they will spend a couple of weeks with the groom's mother, after which they will go to Wilmington to make their future home. The bride was married in a handsome blue coat suit with accessories to match.

"The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mrs. W. H. Foushee, and has made her home in this city for a number of years. She has a host of friends here who wish her a happy future. The groom is a prosperous young business man of Wilmington, being in the lumber business at present."

ADDRESS ON BRAZIL.

Rev. K. G. Borchers Makes Interesting Talk at Y. M. C. A.

An interesting address on Brazil and its people was made Sunday afternoon at the men's mass meeting at the Y. M. C. A. by Rev. W. G. Borchers, who has spent seven years in that country as a missionary and who is now at home on a furlough. Unfortunately there was not a large audience present. The speaker first took up the history of the people of the country and in this connection stated that the population of this country is the most mixed in the world.

He spoke of their degraded condition which is largely due to the fact that Barzil was settled by the criminal class from Spain and Portugal. Four-fifths of the inhabitants are unable to read or write, he said, and their morals are not high class.

There are now 100 missionaries in Brazil and something of the good work they are doing can be seen when it is remembered that a prominent physician in Rio de Janeiro, who is not himself a Christian, declared that since the missionaries had been in the country they had done more for the general uplift of the people than all the government schools combined.

Mr. Borchers referred to the visits of Mr. Bryan and Mr. Roosevelt to Rio de Janeiro and the cordial welcome accorded them by the government officials and the people generally. One government officer, he said, had Mr. Bryan's address on peace printed and was having it distributed to the people.

MEETING OF DIRECTORS.

Officers of Associated Charities Discuss Number of Matters.

The regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the Associated Charities was held yesterday morning in the offices of the organization in the basement of the Court House. Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, president of the society, presided. The directorate now embraces every minister in the city, the head of the Salvation Army and the secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and this has served to broaden its work very materially.

The committee composed of Rev. Thos. P. Noe, chairman; Rev. J. A. Sullivan and Dr. Ernest Bulluck, appointed at the last meeting to devise a plan for helping those people who are out of employment, reported that they had been at work on the proposition, but that they had not yet been able to make such arangements as they thought feasible. However, the hope was expressed that they could have some plan at an early date. This is one of the propositions in which the organization is especially interested.

Rev. J. A. Sullivan, chairman of the committee appointed to revise the constitution, reported that some work had been done and a new constitution would soon be prepared. A representative of the Redpath Lyceum Bureau appeared relative to putting on an attraction next November. The matter was referred to a committee.

..Theatrical..

The Victoria Theatre, Wilmington's handsome vaudeville house and the equal of any in the South, opened its Easter week celebration yesterday in a blaze of glory. From any angle one looks at the present offering, which opened yesterday and will continue throughout tomorrow, the show is the most brilliant vaudeville offering ever made in Wilmington. The huge audiences of yesterday were taken by storm and each went out highly praising the show. The show opens with Dave Williams, comedy juggler, and he is an artist, both at juggling and making fun. He is what, in stage parlance, would be called an eccentric juggler, and there is nothing his skill cannot conquer, while keeping the audience in an uproar of laughter the entire time. He is followed by Pete Lewin, known as President Wilson's xylophonist, as he was a soloist with the Marine band for years and gave several recitals at the White House.

Next comes the well known comedy sketch team of Hodge and Lowell, and here's an act that is a big hit. Then comes the finale, and such a finale, too. It is the Great Asahi, the wonderful Japanese man of mystery, supported by the Asahi Quintette of Japs. Not only does he present a startling act of magic, but his act is a most pretentious one. The scenery is fantastic and gorgeous, and the effects beautiful.

The show is completed by two extra fine photoplays. Of course, the superb Victoria orchestra has a programme of new numbers.

At The Grand Today.

Don't miss a single day at the popular, handsome Grand Theatre this week, if you can help it. The greatest gems in the moving picture line, presented in the greatest possible manner, are sparkling at this favorite amusement spot this week. Yesterday was a big day, both fro man artistic standpoint and from that of a crowded theatre. Today is going to be another great one. The star of today's show will be the latest of "The Adventures of Kathlyn," this particular film being entitled "A Colonel In Chains." it is something magnificent, as well as thrillingly spectacular, and all who have seen the others of th's series should not miss this one. Both man and beast take part and the array of both is great.

The Vitagraph folks also have a big star on today. It's "In the Old Attic," and it's one of the most heart touching, as well as dramatic ever flashed on a screen. It tells of how a millionaire turns his son out because he won't marry the girl of his choice. Later, the little grandson makes a dramatic appearance on the scene, and saves the life of his grandfather.

And speaking about comedy, the rich, fascinating kind, why Edison will present the prince of all of them today in "The Beautiful Leading Lady." It's the story of a Johnnie, who turns out to be the angel of a company. Then he falls in love with the leading lady and tries to act. It's a howl for genuine mirth.

"Our Mutual Girl" at Bijou.

Bijou goers will again welcome "Our Mutual Girl" today in the fourth installment of her interesting career. The scene opens with the dispersing of a crowd at the sight of a limousine being entered by detectives in an effort to recover stolen property. John, the country boy, walks away dejectedly when they fail to find the property. Margaret and her aunt return after a pleasant ride, and the next day attend the races at Piping Rock. As they pass out the door a detective across the street sees the stolen necklace slip out of Margaret's muff to the pavement. Other interesting episodes, including a visit to an exclusive establishment, where the styles are displayed on living models, are in this release of Miss Phillips' adventures.

"The Embezzler" is the biggest thing on today's programme, a mammoth two-reel Gold Seal picture, with such stars as Murdock MacQuarrie, Pauline Bush and William C. Bowlan in the leading roles. It tells the story of a crook who blackmailed a millionaire, and was later shot by a pal, and is one of the biggest dramatic productions ever crowded into two reels of motion pictures.

The comedy side will be satisfied in a big full reel Thanhouser production, "Why Reginald Reformed."

Remember, the first installment of that enthralling story "The Perils of Pauline," will be on tomorrow. Miss your supper—miss anything else—but don't miss this first installment of this wonderful photoplay. You won't miss any of the other installments after seeing the first.

OPENING OF REVIVAL.

Inspiring Service at Brooklyn Baptist Church Last Night.

An inspiring sermon was preached at the Brooklyn Baptist church last night by Rev. R. A. MacFarland, of Scotland Neck, his subject being "The Christian Heritage." There was a large congregation presene and much interest was manifesteed. Mr. MacFarland, who is considered one of the best Baptist preachers in the State, arrived yesterday afternoon and will assist the pastor, Rev. J. A. Sullivan, for the remainder of the week.

A special feature in connection with the services which will be held each night at 7:45 o'clock, is the singing by a large chorus which has been especially trained for this series of meetings. There will also be services each afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The subject this afternoon will be: "How We May be Fishers of Men." The public is cordially invited to all services.

BOARD MEETING YESTERDAY.

Only Routine Matters Considered at Monthly Session.

Only routine matters were taken up at the regular monthly meeting of the board of education which was held yesterday afternoon in the offices of Prof. Washington Catlet, county superintendent of public instruction. The monthly bills were audited and ordered paid. Several other matters of a routine nature were discussed.

On account of having to be in court J. O. Carr, Esq., chairman of the board, could not be present yesterday afternoon. A conference of all the members of the board was held last night for the purpose of going over the general situation with a view to becoming thoroughly informed as to the general outlook for the coming year in order that plans may be made more intelligently.

Six O'clock Closing Hour.

Under an agreement entered into last Fall, the gentlemen's clothing and furnishing stores of the city will, beginning May 2nd, close at 6 o'clock each evening, instead of at 6:30, the closing hour during the Winter. On Saturday nights, however, and on each first of the month, the stores will remain open at night as at present.

FUNERAL OF MRS. GORDON.

Services Held From Family Residence Sunday Afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Frances Gordon, whose death occurred Saturday morning, was conducted from the family residence, No. 105 South Eighth street, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist church. She was greatly beloved, and the impressive services were attended by many friends. The remains were borne tenderly to Oakdale cemetery for interment. The grave was covered with the profusion of floral designs.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. T. G. Landen, R. P. Montgomery, J. D. Mote, C. H. Keen, H. W. Colwell and J. D. Kelly.

Bold Burglar Enters House.

A bold burglar entered the home of R. F. White, at No. 602 Anderson street, some time Saturday night, between the hours of 11 P. M. and 4 A. M. The purpose of the burglar's visit so far as could be learned was to get Mr. White's store keys, which he was successful in doing. The thief then went to No. 911 Miller street, and soon effected his entrance into the store. Finding the safe locked, he essayed a clumsy attempt to plow the safe open, but without success.

—Mr. J. B. Huntington, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., left last night for Columbia, S. C., to attend a conference of the secretaries of the associations which recently took part in the inter-city membership contest.

COTTON MARKET WAS QUIET

Liverpool Market Remained Closed—Continued Demand for Old Crop Positions.

New York, April 13.—With Liverpool still closed, the local cotton market was quiet today. There was considerable bearish talk around the ring, owing to better weather advices from the South, but local sellers were held in check by a continued demand for old crop positions from recent prominent buyers and apprehensions that with the reopening of Liverpool tomorrow there would be a renewed arbitrage buying of May and July contracts. Weakness in the stock market was accompanied by increased offerings from Wall Street sources in the late trading and the close was steady, at a net decline of from 2 to 11 points.

The market opened steady, at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 4 points, with old crop positions relatively firm on a bullish view of the week-end figures.

After showing a net loss of about 6 to 8 points, the market steadied on rumors that recent prominent buyers were again taking May and July contracts on a scale down.

Old crop positions rallied to about Thursday's closing prices during the middle of the day, while the new crop sold back to within 3 or 4 points of that level, and there was renewed predictions that May contracts would sell up to the 13-cent level in the near future. There was nothing in the news reaching here from the South to indicate any change in the spot situation and the offerings around the local ring were chiefly for new crop delivery.

Spot cotton quiet. Middling uplands, 13.35; do. gulf, 13.60. No sales.

Cotton futures closed steady.

WEDDING LAST JUNE SCHEDULED FOR YESTERDAY

Mr. W. G. Privette and Miss Inez Reynolds Spring Unusual Surprise.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 11.—Miss Inez Reynolds, of this city, and Mr. William G. Privette, of Washington, N. C., were scheduled to be married in Pullen Memorial Baptist church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, but it became known this morning that there would be no ceremony and that the young couple were, in fact, already on their way to Washington and Philadelphia, leaving word for their friends that they were already married, the ceremony having taken place on June 20th, last, in Asheville, and been kept secret all these months.

Their real purpose in having issued invitations for their marriage in Pullen Memorial church today was to announce their previous wedding, but their plans were changed to hastening away on their trip and leaving word for their many surprised friends.

The bride is a native of Orange county, but has been a most capable stenographer in the State Department of Health for quite a while. During the past several weeks a number of linen showers and other social affairs have been given in honor of her "approaching" wedding. Mr. Privette is superintendent of the Beaufort county public schools and is a graduate of Wake Forest College.

BY RIVER AND RAIL.

Receipts of Cotton and Naval Stores at the Port.

Wilmington, April 15.

Atlantic Coast Line—354 bales cotton.

Total—354 bales cotton.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, April 13.—Importations of textiles were increasing steadily, and foreign goods held a large place in sales today. Cotton goods markets were quiet, and yarns were dull. Dress goods of a sheer character were talked of more freely for the coming Spring season. Raw silk ruled strong.

NAVAL STORES.

Savannah, April 13.—Turpentine, firm, at 44. Sales, 226; receipts, 207; shipments, 27; stocks, 11,025.

Rosin—Firm. Sales, 549; receipts, 732; shipments 130; stocks, 101,082. Quote: A, B, 3.70; C, D, 3.75; E, 3.80; F, 3.85; G, 3.90; H, 4.05; I, 4.20; K, 4.25; M, 4.50; N, 5.40; W G, 5.75; W W, 6.00.

PETERSBURG PEANUT MARKET.

Reported by Rodgers, Plummer & Co. Inc

Petersburg, Va., April 11. — The latest quotations for peanuts follow:

Spanish—Weak. Farmers' Spanish, $1.55 per bushel.

Virginias—Firm. Fancy Jumbo, 4½c. to 4¾c. per lb. Fancy Hand Picked, 4½c. to 4¾c. per lb. Extra Prime, 4¼c. to 4½c. per lb. Prime, 4 to 4¼c. per lb. Shelling Stock, 3½c. to 4c. per lb.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

New York, April 13.—Call money, steady, 1¾; ruling rate, 1¾; closing, 1¾@1¾. Time loans, steady. Sixty days, 2¼@2⅜; ninety days, 2⅜; six months, 3@3¼. Mercantile paper 3¼@3¾. Sterling exchange, steady. Sixty days, 4.85; demand, 4.885. Commercial bills, 4.84¼. Bar silver, 58¼. Mexican dollars, 45½.

CHILDREN'S DISEASES VERY PREVALENT.

Whooping cough is about everywhere. Measles and scarlet fever are almost as bad. At the onset the symptoms are very similar, feverishness and signs of a cold being in evidence. For the raw inflamed throat and mucous membrane and for coughing, use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It is soothing and healing to inflamed surfaces and the bronchial tubes. Mrs. I. C. Hostler, Grand Island, Neb., says: "My three children had very severe attacks of whooping cough and suffered intensely, and a very few doses of Foley's Honey and Tar gave them great relief." For measles, cough, and the inflamed throat of scarlet fever, for croup, bronchial and la grippe coughs, for tickling throat and hoarseness it always gives grateful relief. It contains no opiates and is a pure medicine. That is why it suits particular people. In 25c and $1.00 sizes. Do not accept a substitute. For sale by R. R. Bellamy.

SLIGHT LOSS IN STOCKS

The Speculative Operations Centered About Steel, Which Broke Under Sixty.

New York, April 13.—Limited speculative operations of today's stock market centered about steel, which broke under sixty for the first time since January. The unsatisfactory showing of the steel trade recently led traders to single out United States Steel for pressure. A few other stocks broke sharply. Although the tone was heavy, there was no severe general pressure and the average loss was slight.

Prices moved slowly downward at the beginning of trading. Then the market rallied on covering and most of the representative railroad shares made small net gains. In the afternoon, however the market again lost ground.

The decline was associated with a statement attributed to a member of the Morgan firm, to the effect that he did not believe the eastern railroads would receive the 5 per cent. freight rate increase. Rock Island collaterals were again under pressure and they touched another low mark at 22.

Canadian Pacific sold under 198 for the first time since 1911. The only stock to show pronounced gain was general motors, which rose 3⅝ to 82⅝, the highest ever reached.

Bonds were lower, with particular pressure against American Telephone, convertible 4½s. Total sales, 575,000. United States bonds, unchanged. Total sales were 242,900, including American Tobacco, 300; C. and O., 900; Lehigh Valley, 700; L. and N., 600; Reading, 15,000; S. A. L., 200; do. preferred, 400; Southern Railway, 300; do. preferred, 100; Tennessee Copper, 800; United States Steel, 91,900; Virginia-Carolina Chemical, 500.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

The Allison Grant

To Whom It May Concern:

The Brunswick Land & Lumber Company has purchased from Philadelphia parties, the original title to what is known as the Allison Grant, consisting originally of about 43,000 acres of land in the neighborhood of Southport, extending up into Town Creek Township.

The property was bought by the company for the purpose of development, and they expect to open and settle the land and to adjust the titles within the boundaries.

The management of the undertaking will be in the hands of North Carolina people, and it is their purpose to develop certain of the lands by opening them up and securing desirable settlers. The first work is the adjustment of titles, without which, it is impracticable to undertake any further development. This will require time and attention, and, in the beginning it is deemed advisable to set forth the policy of the company.

The grantees of the Allison property have an undisputed title, which with few exceptions, is the oldest grant to land in this locality. It seem that there are a number of adverse claimants to parts of this land, and it shall be the policy of the company towards these claimants, whether they have titles vested in them by possession or otherwise, to treat them fairly and equitably. To this end, the company wishes to announce that any man within the boundaries of this original grant who has a home and a cleared farm thereon, shall receive a quit-claim deed upon satisfactory proof of the facts. In the second place, it is the purpose of the company to make this title of value to those adverse claimants, who, under subsequent color of title, in good faith and for some value, have long possessed their holdings, for it would seem that they have some equity in their claims. In short, the company takes the position that they desire to come into the country on friendly terms with all and to do their utmost to help build up this section and make it a prosperous and profitable farming community.

It is recognized that no development can be successfully accomplished, and no useful purpose served by this concern or any other, unless the community approves and is ready to help; and the foremost difficulty about attempting to open property anywhere in the vicinity, is the impossibility of obtaining a title to any land not subject to controversy.

To attempt to fight out in the courts the title to every tract of land would be equivalent to condemning the territory to remain unused and untouched for many years, and to render it not only unprofitable and unproductive, but an expense and a trouble to both the company and other claimants, which everyone wishes to avoid, and, therefore, the company wishes to adopt a pacific policy of adjustment.

We, therefore, earnestly ask the kindly help and co-operation of every citizen, and of every claimant of the land within the territory we have purchased, to meet us half way in settling every contention. We shall do our utmost to be fair, and to be liberal, shall carefully consider every case presented to us on its own merits, and in every case no matter what its merits, shall endeavor to reach a fair settlement with all men. To this end we hope and expect to be met fairly and for the same consideration to be taken of our efforts and our rights as we expect to give all others.

Persons interested are requested to communicate with

FRANK C. PAGE, Southport, N. C. or Box 131, Wilmington, N. C.

Therefore, the public will take notice that this company holds the title to and possession of that tract of land lying in Smithville and Town Creek townships known as the Allison Grant by deed duly recorded.

In the absence of mutual spirit and fair play, the owners shall be obliged to take such legal steps as they may be advised to protect their property.

What Saving Means

The test of a man's ability to succeed is his Ability to Save Money.

The man that will not or can not save is sure to be branded a Failure.

But the man who can and does save is respected by those who know him and goes about with the mark of Success upon him.

He advances from one position of trust to another, always working higher.

It is not so much the amount saved as the fact that he can save that gives Confidence, Independence, Power and Success.

We urge all men to save and invite them to deposit their savings with us for Safety, Convenience and Profit.

"DAGO FRANK" MADE CONFESSION

supported by two keepers. In the cells could be heard the murmer of the other slayers in their supplications. The warden and attendants stepped back from the rubber mat.

"Oh, God; I meet my God!" gasped the Italian. The State electrician the switch.

The first contact was gradually reduced, then a second shock was given. The prison physicians, Dr. Farr and Dr. Meremo, with several other witnessing doctors, applied the stethoscope.

"I pronounce this man dead," whispered Dr. Farr. It was 5:43 o'clock. The group of witnesses left the death chamber and the body of "Dago Frank" was removed to the autopsy room.

The doctors said Cirofici had made little resistence to the electric current which registered 1,920 volts and between 9 and 10 ampheres. Of the four, he died the easiest. He had intended making a statement, but his mental processes had failed him.

A new lot of witnesses filed in. Then through the little door came "Whitey Lewis." The statement that he never finished was on his lips as he entered. The attendants, fearing a shocking spectacle of hysteria, sought to soothe him.

A current of 1,920 volts with a slightly higher amperage than had been used on Cirofici took his life. He was pronounced dead at 5:52.

At 5:56 "Gyp the Blood" was brought in. He had a Jewish prayer book in his left hand and Rabbi Goldstein walked by his side. "Listen, Israel! There is only one' God,' mumbled "Gyp the Blood" in Hebrew. Two shocks were given at 6:02 o'clock and physicians pronounced him dead.

"Lefty Louie," the last of the four to die, entered the chamber at 6:07. He handed his Jewish prayer book to Rabbi Kopfstein before the guard strapped him in the chair. Like "Gyp" he mumbled a prayer in Hebrew. The theory that the strongest shall die last, "Lefty" bore out by his uncanny resistence to the current. The first contact was given at 6:08. At 6:17 he was pronounced dead.

The only relatives of the gunmen in the prison at the time of the execution were "Dago Frank's" mother, sister and brothers and "Whitey Lewis'" brothers.

Mrs. Cirofici was borne to her carriage in collapse an hour after the electrocution.

All the bodies of the gunmen will be claimed by relatives.

Second Trial of Becker.

New York, April 13.—The second trial of Charles S. Becker, former police lieutenant, found guilty of murder with the four gunmen executed today, will begin on May 4th, if the district attorney has his way. It was said at the district attorney's office today that Mr. Witman will appear before a Supreme Court justice Wednesday and move to set the trial for that date.

Bodies to New York.

New York, April 13.—The bodies of the four gunmen executed in Sing Sing prison today were brought back to this city. That of "Whitey Lewis" Seidenhner was given immediate burial in a Long Island cemetery. Emotional thousands of the East Side fell in behind this cortege and followed it for blocks from an undertaker's to the entrance of the Williamsburg bridge, over which the hearse and six carriages passed on the way to the grave. At the bridge the throng halted and there they waited until long after nightfall not crediting the information given by the police that none of the other funerals was to be held today.

In front of the homes or undertaking establishments to which the other bodies were conveyed hundreds of curious persons gathered. Where "Gyp the Blood" Horowitz lay dead, in the home of a Harlem church sexton, police reserves were called to prevent people from entering and viewing the body.

The sexton resorted to a ruse to get rid of the crowd. He had a hearse back up to the door and into it an empty coffin was placed and driven away. Many were deceived and left. Horowitz's funeral will take place tomorrow and his body will be buried in the same cemetery where that of "Whitey Lewis" lies.

The police estimated that 10,000 persons viewed the body of "Dago Frank" Cirofici at a Branx undertaker's place, passing by the casket for more than six hours. Cirofici's mother, who was at Sing Sing during her son's last hours, was prostrated at her home today. The funeral will take place Wednesday and the body will be buried in a West Chester county cemetery.

The family of "Lefty Louie" Rosenberg claimed his body. When it will be buried was not made known.

Man Shoots at His Fellow Worker and Then Drops Dead.

Greensboro, N. C., April 13.—At Lexington this morning, while the superintendent of the cotton mill by waich they are both employed had them in his office trying to settle their dispute, W. T. Childers opened fire on C. L. Rowe.

He shot three times over the superintendent's head and then dropped dead from heart failure brought on by the excitement. One bullet struck Rowe in the hand.

AN NICE CREAM TALK.

From the Royal Baking Company to the Public.

Royal Quality, Royal Service and Royal Materials have made their name. This is shown by the daily increasing sales in our bakery. We intend to make our Ice Cream Department a worthy rival of our bakery, in volume of business.

Our ice cream Spring and Summer sales started ten days ago. We have made careful and elaborate preparations for same. Starting from the outside, we have carefully cleaned and painted our buckets, and the containers have also been given thorough attention so as to make them as clean and sanitary as possible.

Our materials are only of the best and highest grade. The ingredients which enter our ice cream are carefully selected, and mixed in the most expert and sanitary manner. From the minute that we begin to make our cream until the palatable product is served upon your table you may rest assured that Royal Care, Preparation and Service protect the cream, as well as your health.

Let us have your orders without delay. Obey that impulse. Telephone 246. That is all you have to do to have your ice cream delivered at your door promptly for Sunday dinner. It will be a pleasure to serve you. We know that an order now will make you a steady patron.

ships, declaring that the matter generally was misunderstood by the public. The subsidy contracts of foreign governments, he said, showed it to be a military measure and not commercial. The United States should look at it in the same light, he thought.

Senator O'Gorman said it was generally assumed that 92 per cent. of the coastwise traffic was in railroad-owned ships, which the law bars from the canal, and on that proportion there would be few American coastwise ships to enjoy a tolls exemption.

"That is assuming," remarked Senator Thomas, "that the railorads don't beat the devil around the stump and get through the canal, anyway."

Prof. Huebner expressed the belief that the tolls question would have little bearing on freight rates. Shipping conferences, he said, would charge them "all the traffic would bear"; then, if the tolls were remitted, the ship owners, not consumers, would benefit. His assertion that the Panama railroad ships, owned and operated by the government were in one of these conference agreements, aroused interest in the committee.

Discussion of treaties by today's witnesses, was discouraged, Chairman O'Gorman remarking: "The committee is not anxious to receive any expert legal advice. Each member is drawing his own conclusion as to that."

Prof. Emery Johnson, who made the computations of traffic and costs upon which was based President Taft's proclamation fixing charges for use of the canal, will appear before the committee tomorrow.

It was stated today that Joseph H. Choate, former ambassador to Great Britain, probably would not appear. He has advised the committee of his unwillingness because of poor health and becaus eall he might say already is in print in recent communications to various Senators.

SPECIAL VENIRE TO TRY NEWTON-McARTHUR CASES.

To be Called at Fayetteville Week Beginning April 27th.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., April 13.—In addition to the regular jury list for the first and second weeks of the approaching April term of Cumberland civil court, which convenes here April 27th, a special venire of 51 men has been called by the county commissioners, at the suggestion of Judge Rountree, with particular reference to the trying of the Newton-McArthur cases; that is, the cases of the American National Bank of Wilmington the Fourth National Bank of FayettetheFourth National Bank of Fayetteville against Adam McArthur and Mrs. M. C. McArthur, his mother.

The Wilmington bank is suing on a $10,000 note made by R. W. Herring, D. L. McBryde, R. H. Davis and W. M. Walker to J. Sprunt Newton and Adam McArthur and endorsed with the names of the two latter, to which endorsement Mr. McArthur denies his signature. The Fourth National is sueing on two $10,000 notes alleged to have been endorsed by Mrs. M. C. McArthur and Adam McArthur.

Each suit is analogous to the case of the Norfolk bank tried in the United States court at Raleigh in February. But there are minor points of difference that may make them more interesting. The makers of the notes held by the American National Bank and Mr. Newton have acknowledged the genuineness of the paper as regards them, and judgment has been secured against each one of them. But Adam McArthur has repudiated the signature alleged to be his. As in the Raleigh case, handwriting experts will again figure prominently, and again there will be brilliant groups of counsel engaged. For the Fourth National Bank will appear Hon. Geo. M. Rose and Chas. G. Rose, Solicitor N. A. Sinclair, who was declared to have delivered the most powerful argument made in the McArthur case tried at Raleigh; R. H. Dye, Col. C. W. Broadfoot, dean of the Fayetteville bar, and C. W. Broadfoot, Jr. For the American National Bank State Senator Q. K. Nimocks and Sinclair and Dye will appear. Beyond A. W. McLean, L. R. Varser and J. Dixon McLean, of Lumberton, it has not been determined who will be associated with Hon. John G. Shaw and John A. McLean, Jr., in the defense of the McArthurs.

Owing to the gravity of the cases Judge Rountree suggested that a special venire be drawn to insure the selection of unprejudiced jurors. Therefore 51 talismen were drawn in addition to the 71 men on the regular jury list. None of the talismen is from the city township.

A total of $219,000 is involved in the outcome of the various Newton-McArthur suits.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mt. Olive, N. C., April 13.—Although it is impossible at this time to state with any degree of accuracy the date of the first shipment of strawberries from this point, it is, however, variously estimated at from the 25th of April to the 10th of May. It is also claimed that the acreage for this section this year is somewhat reduced.

However, if weather conditions from now on are favorable, the total number of crates shipped from here may be equally as large as it was last year, since last year's crop was considerably reduced by unseasonable weather.

CHANGE FOR THE BETTER.

Latest News From Bedside of Wife of Editor Mintz.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Mt. Olive, N. C., April 13.—Latest reports from the bedside of Mrs. Carrie McGee Mintz, wife of Editor Fred R. Mintz, who is now in the Rocky Mount Sanitarium for special treatment of several internal disorders, were to the effect that Mrs. Mintz was believed to have taken a change for the better yesterday.

It's Easy to Peel Off All Your Freckles

The contrast between the freckles and the clear skin usually is so great that no bleach can be more than partially successful in obliterating the disfigurements. Ordinary mercolized wax is far better; it literally peels off the freckles. Get an ounce of it at the nearest drug store and tonight spread on enough to completely cover your face; remove in the morning with warm water. Repeat daily until every freckle has disappeared.

Rough, blotchy, pimpled skin, also common at this season, may be entirely gotten rid of by this same method, without discomfort or inconvenience. The effort is decidedly worth while, the new complexion obtained being so clear, smooth and youthful.

If bothered with wrinkles, bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. This is the most effective and quickest-acting wrinkle treatment known not require the fertilization that is necessary in the sand hills, though it will require more lime.

He stated that it was adapted to the growing of many of the crops and fruits that are grown on the Moore county lands, and to others which cannot be profitably grown there. The Brunswick soil is especially well adapted to trucking, he says, and this feature will be given attention, especially on the tracts which will be cultivated by the members of the company.

Speaking of the plans in this respect, he stated that all members of the company are men who are interested in farming in the sand hill section, and that they will utilize part of their holdings in Brunswick to farm for their own cultivation. This they will do for several reasons, one being that it will afford them opportunities for experiments along the lines of the most modern methods of agriculture, and will serve as a practical demonstration of what the soil is really capable of doing. Another is that such operations will pay them financially, aside from all other considerations.

For Good Roads.

The company, Mr. Page said, would take every step to encourage the building of good roads in this section, and will lend material aid in the development of good roads in Brunswick county. It will also encourage the location of a number of school houses in the neighborhood. These two things, good roads and school houses, have proved to be two of the most important factors in the Moore county and sand hill section improvements, and every member of the company is a good roads enthusiast, and a booster for better educational facilities in the rural districts.

Transformation of Sand Hills.

The wonderful development that has taken place in and around Moore county, in the sand hill section, during the past five years, has attracted the attention of the whole United States. A section that was formerly sparsely settled, and largely a waste of pine barrens and scrub-grown sand hills, has been transformed into one of the most productive spots in the whole South. Where formerly little grew but scrub pine, wire grass and briars, the land is now producing wonderful crops of cotton, tobacco, corn, peaches, berries and practically all of the other crops produced in the State. And the section is now settled by prosperous farmers, many of them from the North, others from South Carolina and many native North Carolinians.

Leaders in this agricultural development were Mr. Leonard Tufts, founder and owner of Pinehurst, the famous Winter resort; the Page brothers, Frederick T. Gates, financial secretary to John D. Rockefeller, and a number of other well known men; all of whom own and operate large farms in that section today, and farms that pay as well as any investments they have.

Means Much to This Section.

With such men back of the new development in Brunswick county, it cannot but mean a vast benefit to Wilmington and the surrounding territory. They have practically unlimited capital to put their plans through, and the manner in which they have aided in the upbuilding of the sand hill section holds forth promise of similar effort on their part here.

The transaction, too, marks the beginning of the agricultural development of Brunswick county, with all its rich and varied resources, heretofore barely touched.

It also has a significance to Wilmington, in that the members of the company, avowed good roads advocates that they are, will now have an active interest in getting a modern improved automobile highway through from Pinehurst to Wilmington, and on to Southport, and the probability is that, in the near future, this section will share with Pinehurst and the other sand hill resorts, the Winter tourist travel business, which now for lack of suitable facilities, does not come here.

The new company does not expect to encounter absolutely no opposition in its plans for developing the holdings purchased, but it believes that when the people know that it is ready to meet everyone who has a claim on any part of the property fairly and squarely, and to adjust the matters as outlined in its official statement, that most of the opposition will dwindle away. It prefers to adjust all claims pacifically, if possible, but Mr. Page stated yesterday that if a fight is forced on the company it will defend its rights.

Already the opposition has expressed itself in no uncertain manner. A small house, erected by the company on part of the tract near Goresville, was blown up, either with dynamite or giant power, last Saturday night. Mr. Page laughingly stated yesterday that such methods would have no effect on the plans of the company.

ed on the spacious lawns for the day's merry making. The big folks were there, too. But the admissions were restricted to children and accompanying parents, guardians or nurses. Adults unaccompanied by children were not admitted. Thousands of grown-ups, however, watched the frolic from nearby.

Hundreds of children laden with baskets filled with vari-colored eggs were on hand early today waiting for the White House grounds to be thrown open. Among the children from the homes of administration members participating were:

Sally and John McAdoo, children of the Secretary of the Treasury; the seven youngsters of Secretary Tumulty; John Bryan, grandson of the Secretary of State; Elizabeth Howe Wilson and her sister, Virginia Wilson, both daughters of the Secretary of Labor; Ned and Nancy Lane, children of the Secretary of the Interior, and David Houston, son of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Death of Young Son.

Many friends will sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Orr in the death of their 20-month-old son, Willie Leo, which occurred at the family home, No. 807 Chesnut street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains, accompanied by members of the family, will be taken to Currie on the 8:40 train this morning for the funeral and interment.

—Deeds were filed for record yesterday, as follows: Geo. W. Burnett and wife to Dan E. Costin, for $100 and other valuable considerations tract in Masonboro township, near Silver Lake, containing 61 acres; Geo. W. Burnett and wife to B. F. King, Jr., and Samuel Seigler, Jr., for $100 and other considerations, tract in Masonboro township, containing 3.9 acres.
